

Drive On To List 9000 Voters Here

The Voters Service Committee of the League of Women Voters of Newton is waging a vigorous city-wide campaign to get local residents to register for the forthcoming primaries and election campaign.

Goal of the drive is an estimated 9000 qualified Newtonites who are eligible but who have not registered to vote.

As part of this campaign, birthday cards encouraging voter registration have been sent to all local residents who reached their 21st birthday this year. In addition, letters containing information about voter registration are being sent to all new residents of Newton.

In order to qualify for registration, residents must meet the following requirements: they must be 21 years of age by the next election, a U.S. citizen, a resident in Massachusetts for one year, a resident in Newton for six months, and must demonstrate the ability to read.

This is the last week for primary registration. It must be done in person at the Election Commission Office at City Hall between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. today August 6th and between 8:30 a.m. and 10 p.m. on August 7th.

It is estimated that there are nearly 9000 qualified Newton residents who have not registered to vote. The Voters Service Committee urges all unregistered voters to take this opportunity to participate in the local, state and national elections.

Mrs. George Gerard is chairman of the Voters Service Committee. Mrs. Paul Nation is serving as chairman of the registration drive and Mrs. Morris Goldings is her co-chairman.

Hours Set For Registration Of New Voters

With tomorrow night (Friday, August 7) the registration deadline for the primaries, voters may register at any time between 7:30 in the morning and 10 o'clock that night, Arthur G. Heaney, chairman of the election commission, announces.

The hours today (Thursday) will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Registration facilities will close August 7 until September 11, the day after the primaries, and voters may register at the usual hours up to and including Friday, October 2, on which date the facilities will be open until 10 p.m.

It is quite possible, Heaney said, that arrangements will be made to register voters evenings at various locations, in addition to City Hall, the final week prior to October 2. The locations and hours will be announced later, Heaney said.

ALFRED R. GUZZI
Funeral Held On Monday For Alfred Guzzi

A solemn high Mass of requiem for Alfred R. Guzzi, 57, of 9 Joseph road, Newtonville, Newton's youngest alderman when he was elected to the Board from Ward 3 in 1934, when he was 28, was celebrated Monday, August 3, in the Church of Our Lady.

In attendance were Mayor Donald L. Gibbs and many city and state officials.

Mr. Guzzi collapsed at his home July 31, and was pronounced dead on arrival at Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

He served two terms as Ward 3 alderman, but was not successful in later bids for an at-large seat from Ward 2. In 1958 he sought election as a state representative from the 4th Middlesex District, but was defeated. At the time of his election to the aldermanic board, he was a custodian at the Levi Warren School, and was the first city employee ever to hold a city office.

Born in Newton, he was treasurer of his 1927 class at Newton High School. He also studied at Suffolk Law School. He had retired two years ago as a foreman in the Newton street department.

Mr. Guzzi was a past president of the Foremen's and

3 School Principals Named By Board

The Newton School Committee, at an executive session following the Monday, July 27 special meeting, accepted the retirement of one elementary school principal and named three persons to elementary school principalships.

J. Kenneth LaFlamme retired as principal of both the Horace Mann and Carr elementary schools. Principal of the Carr School since 1935, he came from Maine and taught at Warren Junior High School. The only principal the Carr School has ever had, he has also been principal of the smaller Horace Mann School since 1954. His retirement was accepted as of July 8.

To replace him at the Carr School, the committee named Joseph A. Gattuso, now principal of the Emerson School, Newton Upper Falls. He came to Newton in 1952, and in 1959 he became the youngest principal in Newton when named Emerson's principal. He was named

Lasell Nurses To Wash Cars

Twenty-five members of the Lasell Junior College School of Nursing will conduct a car-wash on Saturday, August 8, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Grove street parking lot, opposite the Williams School in Auburndale.

The student nurses, in residence at Lasell this summer while working at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, will donate the proceeds of the car-wash to the support of Kar Yu, a young Korean boy, whom they "adopted" through the Foster Parents Plan.

Incinerator Is Scheduled For January Start

The city this week advertised for bids on the machinery and equipment for the interior of the proposed new $2 million municipal incinerator to be built on Rumford avenue in West Newton.

Public Works Director Willard S. Pratt reported at the same time that work on the much-needed facility should start next January and that the incinerator should be completed and ready for use a year from January.

When the bids are received the end of this month on the machinery and equipment for the incinerator, a decision will be made as to exactly what equipment will be purchased.

Several alternates were contained in the advertisements published by the city.

Prices are being sought for a furnace, a crane, grates, an ash conveyor and other equipment which make up the interior of an incinerator.

When a decision is made as to which equipment will be bought, Mayor Donald L. Gibbs will submit a recommendation to the Board of Aldermen asking that the necessary funds be appropriated from the $2 million bond issue approved last year.

Rites Today For Former City Official

Funeral services for former Alderman Winfield C. Anderson, 66, of 57 Elmhurst road, Newton, were held this morning (Thursday, Aug. 6) at his home, followed by a 10 o'clock requiem Mass in Our Lady of the Presentation Church, Brighton.

Mr. Anderson, president of Anderson & Company, Boston advertising firm, suffered a heart attack at his home last Monday morning. Despite administration of oxygen by police on the way to Newton-Wellesley Hospital, he was pronounced dead on arrival there.

A native of Wilmington, Del., he was a Newton resident for more than 40 years. He served as Ward 7 alderman-at-large from 1948 to 1957, and was chairman of the franchises and licenses

Law Enforcement Conclave Friday

A specialized law enforcement conference sponsored by the FBI will be held in the War Memorial wing of City Hall tomorrow (Friday, Aug. 7), it was announced by James L. Handley of the Boston office, special agent in charge.

To be discussed are the provisions of the newly enacted Civil Rights Act of 1964, in addition to a review of the provisions of the Fugitive Felon Act.

The meeting is one of a series to be held throughout the nation between now and Aug. 28. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover stated that officials attending will be given full information pertaining to the FBI's responsibilities under the Civil Rights Act, and explained that the nationwide conferences are being held in view of the numerous requests received from police executives.

60 Republicans Switch Loyalty

More than 60 Newton residents who had been enrolled as Republicans have dropped their party enrollment since Senator Barry Goldwater was nominated as the GOP candidate for President.

Many of them declared bluntly and flatly that they were quitting the Republican Goldwater's views, especially on civil rights.

The remainder assumed a status as Independent voters who are not enrolled in either party as a protest against political party.

This has happened in the three-week period since Goldwater's nomination, with the greatest flurry of changes occurring immediately after the Republican national convention.

In the same period of time only one Newton voter switched from the Democratic to the Republican party.

Figures obtained from Election Commissioner Arthur G. Heaney revealed that 21 Republicans had become Democrats and that 46 Newton voters had cancelled their party enrollment.

Heaney was unable to say whether any of the 46 who discarded their party affiliations were Democrats. However, the indications were that almost all — and possibly all 46 — were Republicans.

Aldermen Wade Into Extra Large Docket

The Board of Aldermen acted on an unusually large number of docket items during their rather prolonged meeting in City Hall Monday night.

Following are recommendations of various committees approved by the Board on a vote of 17 to 0, with seven members absent:

An appropriation of $850 to pay Charles H. Morange through October for his service as assistant city solicitor. Morang, former Ward 8 alderman-at-large and now administrative assistant to the mayor, has been substituting for Assistant Solicitor George Elbaum, whose illness will require Morang's service for another two months.

An appropriation of $2000 requested by the workmen's compensation agent to indemnify Charles Blue, who lost three fingers of his left hand while operating equipment as an employee of the street department. He is now back at work.

The Retirement Board's request for $1642.10 to cover from July 24 to Dec. 31 the pension of Robert P. Murphy, street department employee and World War I veteran, who retired after 43 years of service.

A street department request for $3200 for construction of a portion of Albemarle road.

Water commissioner's requests for appropriation of $3500 for external blast cleaning and painting of the Stanton Avenue and Charles River elevated storage tanks, $1790 for water main installation in Churchill terrace, $5700 for extension of main in Lovett road, $1400 for main extension in Sherrin road and $985

Residents Rack Up Pool Table Protests

One petition for installation of pool tables created no stir whatever when given a public hearing Monday night before the Board of Aldermen, but a second one brought forth a storm of protests.

Petition No. 1 was that of the Newton Masonic Club for two tables in Masonic Temple, 460 Newtonville avenue, Newtonville. No. 2 was brought by Port William, Inc., and was for 20 tables at 26 Eliot street, Newton Highlands, a building adjacent to the Route 9 shopping center near the bridge by which MBTA cars cross over the Worcester Turnpike.

The corporate name, Port William, is obviously derived from the names of two of the three directors, Eugene Portanova of Watertown and Alan Williamson of Needham. The third director is George M. Bradley of 2149 Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale. All three spoke briefly in behalf of their petition.

Spokesmen for both petitioners referred to the game to be played on the proposed tables as "pocket billiards," a name devised by the industry many years ago in an effort to improve the image of the pool-playing art.

So far as the Masonic Club's petition was concerned, nothing was said to indicate disapproval of the game of pool by any member of the sizeable delegation of anti-pool men and women who virtually filled all space reserved in the Aldermanic chamber for visitors.

The reception accorded the Port William, Inc., petition was far from friendly, however. Thirty-nine owners of property in the vicinity of the proposed pool establishment each raised a hand to indicate opposition as the hearing drew toward its end. Not a hand was raised in favor. And a spokesman for the people of the area gave

$250,000 Gift To College

A prominent Newton financier, Joseph Kosow, has given $250,000 to Brandeis University towards the construction of a biochemistry building in the university's new science quadrangle.

The gift is part of Brandeis' continuing development campaign.

The four-story building will be known as the Joseph Kosow Biochemistry Building and will contain facilities where expanded research teams will study the basic areas of the life sciences.

Joseph Kosow is president and treasurer of the Industrial Finance Corporation, Boston, and treasurer of Pioneer Management, Inc., a construction firm.

He holds membership in the Masons, the board of governors of Pine Brook Country Club, and the B'nai B'rith. He lives at 200 Baldpate Hill road, Newton, with his wife, Eleanor.

The $9,500,000 quadrangle, including a biology building, a mathematics building, two chemistry buildings, three physics buildings and the two biochemistry buildings, will be clustered around a 250,000 volume science library and two existing science buildings.

Construction, which began last fall, is expected to be completed by the summer of 1965.

The National Science Foundation and the National Institutes of Health have provided $2,500,000 in matching funds for the overall construction of the quadrangle.

An educational meeting unprecedented in this area was held in Newton on Wednesday, July 29th when leaders in Roman Catholic education from all parts of the United States visited Temple Shalom of Newton.

Included in the group, which spent the afternoon studying Jewish education, were nuns representing many orders, also several priests and laymen.

The Catholic teachers were guests of Mr. Bernard H. Shulman, Principal of the Temple Shalom Religious School, who lectured on the organization and administration of the Temple Shalom Religious School, which has an enrollment of 1000 students. The school's religious classes are all conducted in the hours after public school as well as on the weekend mornings.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

Democratic Conclave Looms As Cut and Dried Affair

Massachusetts Democratic leaders will travel to their party's national convention in Atlantic City with a lot less enthusiasm and eagerness as a result of President Johnson's action in ruling out Robert F. Kennedy as a Vice Presidential possibility.

The hand of fate and a political decision have stripped the coming conclave in the New Jersey resort city of much of the glamor Bay State Democrats expected and hoped it would have.

Ten months ago, the trip to the 1964 Democratic national convention was planned as a joyous pilgrimage to renominate a native son President.

Then John F. Kennedy was killed by an assassin's bullet in Dallas.

In naming a new principal for the Horace Mann School, presently under construction and due to open in September 1965, the committee again reached into the principals' ranks and chose Miss Ruth E. Chadwick, now principal of the Hamilton School. At the same time, Miss Chadwick was named acting principal of the Hamilton School, where she will continue to serve until a replacement is found.

During her leadership at the Hamilton School, Miss Chadwick in the past several years established an ungraded elementary school program. With funds from the Newton schools' grant from the Ford Foundation for the comprehensive improvement of the school program, her efforts have been highly successful.

The committee named David S. Whiting, Hyde School acting principal, to take the place of Joseph A. Gattuso at the Emerson School. Whiting came to Newton as a sixth grade teacher in 1956, and has served as that school's head teacher and as a specialist in reading at the division of instruction.

A World War II Army veteran, Mr. Whiting was made Hyde's acting principal for the present school year to fill the vacancy caused by the sabbatical leave of absence taken by Arthur Laughland, who is taking a doctoral program at Boston University, and will return to the Hyde School in September.

tingencies in conjunction with revision of traffic signals at Washington street and Commonwealth avenue, site of the new combined fire station, was cut to $1500 on advice of the committee on Finance, an investigation having determined that no more than that figure was needed.

A public works request for $8500 for acceptance of Fuller avenue under the betterment law was denied on recommendation of the Finance and Public Works committee, who reported that only a single resident had indicated favor of the project.

The sum of $1900 for purchase of a panel truck for use by the plumbers of the building department was approved.

Approval was given a request of the buildings commissioner that $11,000 be taken from school building loans for preparation of plans and other costs incidental to construction of an addition to the Hyde School.

It was determined that no action was necessary on two school matters — transmittal of a School Committee vote on additional space needed at Newton South High School, and on acquisition of a school site in the Winchester and Nahant streets area.

A recommendation that the law department pay $2699 to John J. and Alice Cahillan for eminent domain land taking was approved.

Approved was a petition of Alvan F. Sweet for extension of non-conforming use to add a sunporch above the existing one on his home at 15 Hazelhurst avenue.

Leona Fantecchio's petitions for a change of zone from Private Residence District to Residence D District on a lot in the rear of 392 and 400 Langley road, and for permissive use to erect four garden-type apartment buildings containing 30 apartments at 392 and 400 Langley road, were denied on recommendation of Claims and Rules on the ground that poor layouts had been submitted and that the apartment development was not feasible.

No opposition having been voiced to a petition of T. V. Cleveland and the Newton Savings Bank for permissive use for all-day parking by employees on the bank's lot that had been blacktopped, it was approved.

A petition for routine renewal for a year of the license at the Blair Nursing Home, 45 Pelham street, Newton Centre, was approved pending favorable reports from the fire and health departments.

Approval was given the following recommendations of the committee on Franchises and Licenses: a petition of the Veterans Cab Company of 386 Watertown street, Newton, for a new cab to be used at existing stands, and a petition of Donald Rosenberg, 40 Lawmarissa road, Waban, for a curb cut at that address to maintain the drive's 34-ft width.

As soon as it is known what machinery and equipment will be used, the engineering firm of Metcalf and Eddy will proceed with the preparation of plans and specifications for the building structure itself.

Those plans must be completed within 120 days after the contract is awarded for the purchase of the equipment and machinery.

If the Aldermen appropriate the funds at their Sept. 14 meeting so that the contract can be awarded immediately after that date, Public Works Director Pratt's timetable calling for the start of work in January should be realized.

Pratt revealed that the expense of building and equipping the incinerator may be greater than the $2 million estimated. He explained that costs have gone up about 10 per cent since the estimates were made about two years ago.

Loyalty

The Democratic gain in Newton during the three week since Goldwater's nomination has been even greater than the above figures indicate. Figures compiled by Commissioner Heaney showed that 39 persons, who previously either had been independents or had not been registered as voters, enrolled as Democrats.

During the same span 10 new voters enrolled as Republicans.

Burglary Seems A Profitable Trade In Newton

Burglars continue to ply their trade profitably according to reports to the Newton police this past week.

Perhaps the biggest hauls were made at the homes of Robert E. Cunniff, 393 Brookline street, Oak Hill, and Samuel Pressman, 102 Forest avenue, West Newton.

Loot at the former residence included a gold watch valued at $625, 20 sets of cuff links worth in the vicinity of $100, a radio receiver, a moving picture camera and projector and a clock. The Pressman break netted the thieves a $700 bedspread, a television receiver and a 12-piece sterling silver service with extra pieces.

Police believed a truck was used to cart off 120 cartons of ceiling tile taken from the New England Corporation, 293 Needham street, Newton Highlands, over the weekend. The tile was valued at $1800.

The take at the home of Thomas C. Simpson, 31 Herrick road, Newton Centre, comprised $80 in coins, including six silver dollars and three sets of newly minted coins.

The steward of the Newton Squash and Tennis Club, 15 Chestnut terrace, Newton Centre, reported the theft of an extension phone and six lawn chairs.

A $150 watch disappeared from her bedroom, Rose H. Ginsburg of 10 Hammond Pond parkway, Chestnut Hill, reported.

There were a number of minor thefts during the week that included miscellaneous articles, including the bicycles of two boys, Steve Portnoy of 39 Walter street, Newton Centre, and Geoffrey Becker, 89 Boulder road, Newton Centre. Also reported were thefts from workmen's clothes. Mrs. Mary Barry of 34 Hartford street, Newton Highlands, said that the dress trousers of two men who left them in her cellar while they painted the house, were robbed of $215. There had been three similar complaints during the past several weeks.

ing use should be granted. Burke said that he had visited the site that day, and had been impressed by the idea that the new construction would constitute a vast improvement of the premises. "All the petitioner wants," he pointed out, "is a garage to house his motor vehicles."

A roll-call vote on a motion to hold the matter for further study was defeated 8 to 9, with seven members absent. Favoring further study were Aldermen Auryansen, Paul J. Burke, Ernest F. Dietz, William M. Glovsky, George L. Hicks, Andrew J. Magni, John P. McCarthy and John P. Nixon. Opposed were Adelaide D. Ball, William Carmen, Franklin N. Bruce, Melvin J. Dangel, John F. Holden, Charles F. Hovey, Jack M. Roberts, Edward C. Uehlein and Harry L. Walen.

Auryansen made the charter objection just as a roll-call vote on the question of denying the Dolan petition was about to begin, and consideration of the matter was abruptly ended for the night.

Protest

the aldermen a petition signed by more than 170 objectors.

Later in the evening, the committee on Franchises and Licenses voted 5 to 0 in favor of the Masonic petition, but voted that the Port William proposal be held for further study.

Atty. Dennis M. Cronin Jr., of 1357 Washington street, West Newton, appeared as counsel for the Port Williams, Inc. He said that the premises on Eliot street had been leased for 10 years, with the lease subject to the granting of a license, and that the rental was $700 per month. It was the intention of the directors, he said, to operate the establishment as a club, with annual dues of $2, in order that they would know at all times the identity of the persons present.

The state law under which minors need parental permission to enter would be carefully complied with, he went on, and declared that it was the intention to start with 10 pocket billiard tables, each costing $1600, and to completely renovate the building, installing wall-to-wall carpeting and other features to make the atmosphere a pleasant one.

Intracub leagues would be formed, he said, with their members required to join the club, as would all persons who entered.

Atty. Cronin said that when word got around that the petition was to be filed there was considerable objection from the residents of the area, but that opposition subsided after "we went around the neighborhood and explained what we had in mind."

Cronin, too, presented a petition with some 50 signatures of property owners who favored the application, and he said that some of its names were those of persons who prior to the explanatory tour of the neighborhood, had signed a petition of protest. Later, a spokesman for the opponents denied that the two petitions contained duplicate names.

The lawyer went on to say that parking space would be provided for 30 cars, with additional space in the building's rear for 20 more.

Asked by a member of the Board whether he or the other directors had had any experience in operating an establishment such as the one proposed, Eugene Portonova said they were inexperienced, but added that the Brunswick Company, from whom the tables would be purchased, would, as has always been the custom, conduct a training course for them to insure their operation of a well run business.

Portonova said that as business improved, more tables would be added, including those of the "rail billiard" type.

Spokesman for the opposition was Harold Band of 53 Margaret road, Newton Highlands, who explained that he was asked to appear by members of the immediate neighborhood.

Declaring that the area of the proposed pool club had grown considerably in the past 10 years, what with the coming of its shopping center, he said that traffic in the vicinity of Route 9 and Eliot street was already critical.

He added that the parking space available to patrons of the club was grossly inadequate.

Band told the aldermen that he had a friend who operates an establishment in Chelsea similar to the one proposed for Newton Highlands, and that his friend told him that 85 per cent of his patrons are 17, 18, 19 and 20 years of age, and that all of them seem to get parental permission.

"This is a juvenile problem," Band said, "in the opinion of the neighbors here tonight."

One of the objectors, Jack Waldstein of 27 Elliot street, said that he could see no profit for the community in the establishment's coming. "I see no reason for the club, and it would lend no dignity to the area," he said.

Dr. Keene Is Honored By Osteopathic Ass'n

Dr. Walter N. Keene of 128 Lowell Ave., Newtonville, was one of 37 osteopathic physicians granted a life membership by the American Osteopathic Association at its recent meeting in Chicago.

Doctors eligible to receive this honor are those who are 70 years old or more, have practiced osteopathy for 50 years and are members of the AOA for 25 or more consecutive years.

Gilbert N. Arons of 83 Margaret road suggested that a survey be made by a traffic engineer to determine the effect of the proposal. The hearing occupied a full hour of the Board's time.

Joins Troop Carriers

Victor P. Bennett of 9 Ithaca Cir., Newton Lower Falls, recently joined the 902nd Troop Carrier Group based at Grenier Field, Manchester, N.H. He was formerly with the recently deactivated Air Force Recovery Squadron at Beverly Municipal Airport.

Political Highlights

Two months ago, Senator Edward M. Kennedy was slated to be the keynote speaker at the Democratic convention.

Then Ted Kennedy suffered a broken back in a tragic plane crash on his way to the Democratic State Convention in West Springfield.

Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy shaped up as the popular choice for the Democratic Vice Presidential nomination. In an open fight such as was waged at the 1956 convention he undoubtedly would have won decisively.

But Johnson swept him out of the Vice Presidential picture with one speech, presumably because he considered Bobby would be a liability in the South where Senator Barry Goldwater is putting on a tremendous drive.

Now the members of the Massachusetts delegation to the Democratic national convention must be wondering if the trip to Atlantic City is necessary.

They'll listen to some speeches, nominate President Johnson by acclamation and do the same for the man Johnson picks as his running mate, probably Senator Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota.

The only excitement likely to be generated will be produced by a fight to determine which Mississippi delegation will be seated and a possible clash over the civil rights plank in the platform.

Woes Humphrey meet Johnson's specifications for a Vice Presidential nominee?

Of course he doesn't! Neither has any other public figure since George Washington.

But President Johnson apparently feels that Humphrey is attractive, prudent, progressive with passionate consideration for the people's welfare and would be welcomed into every State in the Union.

And what Johnson thinks and wants is what will count at the coming Democratic convention. While some Massachusetts Democrats have talked of making a fight for Bobby Kennedy, that is only talk, and there'll be no fight.

What Bobby Kennedy undoubtedly will do now is prepare to return to Massachusetts to run for either the Governorship or the U. S. Senate in 1966.

Probably the person most disappointed by Bobby Kennedy's elimination from Vice Presidential consideration was Senator Ted Kennedy.

One can only speculate on what Ted Kennedy's feelings and emotions will be in his hospital room as he views the Democratic convention on television, sees someone else get the Vice Presidential nomination he had hoped would go to his brother and watches and listens while flamboyant Rhode Island Senator John O. Pastore delivers the keynote speech he himself would have made except for an unhappy turn of events.

Bobby Kennedy Ponders Future

Robert F. Kennedy must make some extremely important decisions in the very near future.

Here are some of the questions he must be turning over in his mind as he ponders the possible moves open to him. Will he accept an invitation to serve as President Johnson's campaign manager? Will he take a lesser role in the campaign and then return to Massachusetts to run in 1966?

Or will he change his mind and stand against Kenneth Keating in New York State as he is now being urged to do?

One paramount consideration will serve to shape the decision Bobby Kennedy ultimately will make.

He undoubtedly will do what he believes would be most likely to advance the programs and principles of his late brother, former President John F. Kennedy.

Bobby Kennedy is a more austere and aloof person than either the late President or his younger brother, Senator Edward M. Kennedy. It is not easy to anticipate his moves. But Bobby Kennedy is dedicated beyond all else to the ideals of the late President.

If he decides he can best carry on his brother's work by managing Johnson's campaign, that's what he'll do.

If he feels a voice speaking out from the floor of the U. S. Senate would do more to further his brother's program, he'll move into New York to challenge Senator Keating.

If he concludes that his place is back in Massachusetts, where JFK made his political start, he'll return here to run in 1966. A disadvantage to the latter possibility is that it would create a two-year gap in Bobby's political career.

One thing which seemingly is certain is that Bobby will not remain in President Johnson's Cabinet beyond this year.

He reportedly has informed the President that he is not interested either in a Cabinet post or in an assignment overseas.

Bobby Kennedy is a lonely young man who has not recovered from the shock of his brother's assassination and perhaps never will.

Letters To The Editor

Praise For Service

Editor of The Graphic:

Based on eight and one-half years of contact with the Old Age Assistance Department at Newton City Hall, I want to assure my fellow Newtonites that they will be in the hands of fine and understanding people should the need ever arise for help. Contrary to the reputation of many city workers, I have found the women handling this department to be sincerely interested in the applicant's needs. They try, to the best of their ability, to avert all feeling of embarrassment on the applicant's part.

After being independent for a life-time and in good health, suddenly my mother was stricken with a stroke. Not being familiar with this situation it was first doctors and therapists at home. Eventually, it got beyond us and nursing care was necessary. After spending what we had, I was advised to apply for Old Age Assistance as no individual could possibly pay for this ailment.

Heart Funds, Cancer Funds, and Funds for all sorts of illnesses, but none for those afflicted by strokes which seems to be more common than I had ever believed.

The purpose of this note is to openly thank the Newton Department of Old Age Assistance for the wonderful manner in which it handles one case after another, in the same gracious manner. It is Heart, Heart, Heart all the way. God bless them all for their diligence and tireless effort—always with a smile.

Gratefully,

"Me Too" Republican

Editor of The Graphic:

A recent letter by Carol J. Hoffman of Newton Centre accuses "Me Too" Republicans, also called "Conte Cry Babies," of disloyalty to the Republican party. "The Me Too" part of their Republicanism is more important to them than the Republican party," and "everything they are doing (in opposition to Goldwater leadership) benefits the opposition party," he states.

I wish to take issue with the demand for blind obedience to the new leader and his Republican party. Our two-party system has survived, I believe, because within each party there has been individual freedom of expression and action, which has prevented dictatorial control and allowed the forces of opposition within each party to exercise a moderating influence.

Good sportsmanship as a "true Republican" does not require that every Republican now openly support the Goldwater program and policies, opposition to them does not mean that one should leave the party or be inactive during the coming election. Every Republican can do a job for his party by aiding individual candidates who seek to advance human progress without jeopardizing individual initiative and responsibility, the fundamental ideal of Republicanism.

If being a "Me Too" Republican means that I too, as much as any Democrat, believe in advancing the causes of civil liberties, the handicapped, the aged, education, and the struggle for world peace and brotherhood, then I would hope that others might become "Me Too" members of our Republican party.

Visiting Nurses Reimbursed By Cancer Society

A check from the American Cancer Society has been received by the Newton Visiting Nurse Association as reimbursement for the group's visits to needy cancer patients in the city.

In presenting the check, Dr. Thomas W. Botsford, president of the Society's Massachusetts division, pointed out that the reimbursement program was one of the Society's most important activities.

"While large sums of money are devoted to cancer research, public education and professional information," he said, "we do not, and must not, forget the patient who now has cancer. The home care of patients after initial treatment is a vital part of therapy and visiting nurses are frequently needed for the professional aspect of such care.

"If the patient is in need of home nursing care," Dr. Botsford added, "the Cancer Society's reimbursement program makes it possible for nurses to offer their indispensable services at little or no cost to the patients and their families."

Planning Makes Playground Action Enjoyable In Newton

The many events planned by playground leaders have contributed to a most active and enjoyable season on the Newton Recreation Department's playgrounds.

At Richardson Playground, James Sosstik has been crowned the Paddle Tennis Champion. Winners in the various track events were Beth Falk, Shelly Thorner, Robert Kasdin, Kevin Kasdin, Nicky Parnell and Glynn McKinney. Games in Capture the Flag and Soccer have also kept the youngsters happy. Brian McCaillon, John Olem, Philip McCarthy, Helen Mandel, Cindy Simonds and Kathy Simonds have all been winners at Richardson this season. Next they are planning for the Children's Theatre and a trip to Nantasket prior to field day.

At the Lower Falls Playground, many mothers are pitching in helping the recreation leaders. Mrs. Richard Keyes, Mrs. Philip Grant and Mrs. Raymond McMillian conducted a cake sale to aid the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library Fund and the Olympic Fund. Youngsters such as Jane Steele, Mary Barry, Suzanne Sincock, Betty Biziak, helped in the brownie and cookie department. Other youngsters contributed various books and toys which were sold very quickly and these proceeds were added to the Kennedy and Olympic Funds.

Thomas Keyes won the recent bubble gum contest, Richard Foster the watermelon seed contest and Patti McMillian the frog race. Peggy Keyes was the winner of the 1st prize and Deborah Steele was runner-up in the decorated bicycle parade. The hundred yard dash for boys 9-12 was won by Andrew Grant with Michael Keene as runner-up. Jane Steele was crowned the girl's champ in the same event with Marie Reardon runner-up.

Boy's 50 yd. dash, 13-15 yrs.,—Winner Richard Foster with Bob Steele in second place. Caryl Arcese won the girls event in the same age bracket with Peggy Keyes as runner-up. Lollipop race was won by Dean Foster with Thomas Keyes and Ron Arcese as runners-up. Paul Devits and Alex Quinn winners of the tandem race. Story hours are being conducted on this playground with many stories on American History by Miss Marjorie McCann.

Newton Centre Playground held its annual charity carnival recently donating proceeds to the Kennedy Memorial Library Fund and the Olympic Fund. Many booths were decorated and operated by the children. A novelty at the carnival was the water balloon toss at the instructors. Another favorite for the younger children was the fortune teller from Arabia. Success of this annual affair is greatly attributed to the children who aided in this project. They include: Ann McGivney, Joan O'Brien, Julie Morse, Karen Ahearn, Phyllis Pescosolido, Ellen Cutler, Ruth Pigeon, Nancy Pigeon, Robert O'Brien, John Carey, William McGivney, Bruce Palmer, Frederick Perkins IV.

Family Day was celebrated by the Upper Falls Playground with invitations made by the children sent to those parents whose children attend the playground. The party was held from 2 to 4 p.m. with games played between parents and children. All crafts made by the children on the playground up to the present time were put on display, and refreshments were served. One of the high points of the afternoon came when Mrs. Chotkowski beat her daughter, Lisa in a game of box hockey, and Mrs. D'Michael beat Donna Hopkinson in the same game.

The two city tennis champions are members of the Upper Falls Playground and were recipients of trophies this week. Fred Virgilio and Sheila Terry are now real happy youngsters.

A picnic at Echo Bridge and a physical fitness program have also highlighted activities at Upper Falls Playground this year. Children of varying ages did exercises, including push-ups, sit-ups, chin-ups, thread the needle, squat thrusts. Among the outstanding children were: Jean Crowley age 9 and Mark McElroy age 7—Tony D'Fazio was also an exceptional youngster.

Oak Hill Assn. Urges Route 9 'Jug-Handle'

A "jug-handle" turn-off on Route 9 opposite Langley road in Newton Centre was unanimously urged by the board of directors of the Oak Hill District Improvement Association at its most recent meeting, President Irving Karg reported.

The "jug-handle" turn would allow residents from the Oak Hill area to turn off Route 9 to the right—going easterly—and then pass through the traffic lights at Langley Rd. on Route 9 to proceed to Newton Centre, he said.

The State Department of Public Works several weeks ago placed "No Left Turn" signs on Route 9 at the Langley Rd. crossing.

Oak Hill residents in the Dudley Road area must now drive from one to three miles extra to reach Newton Centre stores, churches, temples and other facilities, Karg added. Several members of the Oak Hill Board expressed dissatisfaction with the present "No Left Turn" arrangement. Several residents in the area have complained to Board members, it was reported.

The lack of the "jug-handle" turn off might add to safety problems because many cars might take a route down to the Hammond Pond Parkway overpass and then re-enter Route 9 without the help of traffic lights, some members reported.

The "No Left Turn" signs have also added to the already heavy traffic flow on Parker Street and other adjoining narrow streets in that area, Alan Barkin past president of the Oak Hill Association said.

Barkin reported that he, Alderman Jack Roberts, Mrs. Arno Heyn, secretary of the association and Board member George Spears visited with state DPW officials to discuss plans for a "jug-handle."

Armand Phaneuf, DPW Traffic Engineer, and his assistants agreed that the problem of access to the center of Newton Centre had been aggravated by the signs, but indicated that their own departmental funds were too limited at present to help with the "jug-handle" solution.

Additional appeals and proposals will be made to the City of Newton according to members of the association board of directors Improvement Association.

The treadle-driven spinning wheel was invented at the beginning of the 16th century.

program began with the usual morning exercises and continued with a series of races and other events. The results were as follows: The 100 yd. dash was won by John Martell with runners up Mike Milgroom and Richard Burmingham. The 75 yd. dash for girls was won by Gail McCarthy with runners up Pamela Gilbert and Sheila Meehan. The distance run for boys was won by Walter Milgroom with runners up Richard Burmingham and John Martell. In turn, the girls distance race was won by Carline Voss with runners up Gail McCarthy and Sheila Meehan. The 50 yd. dash for younger boys was won by James Young with runners up Carson Milgroom and Ned McCarthy.

The girls dash was won by Rebecca Miller with runners up Meg Hurley and Amy Shuster. The broad jump for boys was won by Richard Burmingham with runners up Mike Milgroom and Geoff Hurley. The girls broad jump was won by Carline Voss with Deborah Miller and Sheila Meehan following. The distance throw for boys was won by Mike Milgroom with Richard Burmingham and Steven Payne. The accuracy throw for boys was won by Mike Milgroom with runners up Walter Milgroom and Richard Burmingham. The girls distance throw was won by Carline Voss with Deborah Miller and Sheila Meehan. The events concluded with a ladder race which was won by Carline Voss with runners up Meg Hurley and Sheila Meehan.

Three Churches Combine For Vacation School

Three churches, Auburndale Congregational, Centenary Methodist and the Church of the Messiah have combined for a vacation church school whose sessions, Aug. 3 through 14 are being held in the Congregational Church facilities at Hancock St. and Woodland Rd., Auburndale.

Some 65 children four to 12 years of age attend weekday session from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

School is under the direction of Mrs. Paul Deats of the Centenary Methodist Church. She is being aided by the three ministers of the sponsoring churches, the Revs. Robert W. Gollidge, Roland W. Judkins and Eugene W. Meyer. Mrs. Richard Arnold, Mrs. Eugene Turner and Mrs. Luther Manning lead the third and fourth grades in probing the question, "Who is My Neighbor?" The fifth and sixth grades, under Mrs. Walter Holcomb and Mrs. H. P. Sakenfeld, discuss "Christian World Neighbors."

The teaching staff includes several assistants from the junior high groups, Roberta Casey, Judy Harney, Verna Hatch, Barbara Lambert, Laura Lohman and Janet Reynolds.

The curriculum is religiously and morally oriented, its theme being the various aspects of "Christian Living with One Another."

The kindergarten, led by Mrs. Wayne Abells, Mrs. David Campbell and Mrs. Clinton Magoun, studies "Learning to Live with Others." The first and second grades, taught by Mrs. C. R. Creveling and Mrs. Russell Gasdia, learn about "The Way of Love."

Local Democratic Chairman Blasts GOP Nomination

Commenting upon the recent GOP nomination of Barry Goldwater for President, Herbert F. Regal, chairman of the Newton Democratic City Committee, issued the following statement:

"There is little doubt that the nomination of Barry Goldwater is opposed by most Newton Republicans. It seems likely that many of them will vote for President Johnson in November. This is a quiet disavowal of Senator Goldwater and is certainly to be commended. However, I would respectfully suggest that since right wing extremists have taken complete and ruthless control of the Republican party, more than a quiet disavowal is called for."

"Were Gov. Wallace's forces to take full control of the Democratic party and make him the presidential candidate, I, without question, would resign from the Democratic party."

"In the present situation, it would seem that Newton's moderate Republicans might want to express forcefully their displeasure with Senator Goldwater. They, of course, do not, and should not, want to desert their party permanently. However, they could now go to the Election Commission at Newton City Hall and ask that the Republican designation be removed from their name. Then, after Goldwater's November defeat, they could rejoin their party and make certain that it never again falls into the hands of the extreme right wing. By temporarily withdrawing from the party now, they can dramatically demonstrate the strong rank and file Republican opposition to its own right wing."

"In my opinion, such dramatic action is called for because Extremism, masquerading in the guise of liberty, is a most dangerous voice."

School Secretaries Attend Convention

Mrs. Grace Sheehan, president of the Newton Educational Secretaries Association, and Mrs. Peg Fitch, a newly elected member of the executive board of the National Association of Educational Secretaries, attended the annual convention and institute at the University of Washington in Seattle, Wash. Both are Newton Centre residents.

118 Attend Meeting On Law Enforcement

With 118 persons present in War Memorial Hall last Friday, considerable interest was evident in the meeting of law enforcement officers sponsored by the Boston office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Rev. Merrill To Preach At Service Here

The Rev. Boynton Merrill, D.D., will be the preacher next Sunday, August 16th, at the Newton Union Summer Service, held at the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville at 10 o'clock.

Music for this service will be by Marshall S. Wilkins, organist and Miss Anne Sousa, mezzo-soprano. There will be a reception for the children during the service.

Rev. Merrill, now retired, was minister of the Second Church in Newton, West Newton, from 1927 to 1943. He was born in Lowell, and attended Mount Hermon School. He graduated from Dartmouth College and the Union Theological Seminary, and attended Harvard Divinity School during 1921-1922.

He holds an honorary doctor of divinity from Dartmouth College and Marietta College.

Dr. Merrill is the author of "From Confusion to Certainty," "Arrows of Light," and "From Whence Cometh My Help."

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss the best and proper methods for apprehension of criminals who constantly evade the law, particularly by crossing state lines; to discuss ways to decrease attacks on law enforcement officers that have been on the increase of late, and to discuss the provisions of the new Civil Rights Law.

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs gave the greetings of the city to the assembled officials, and promised that Newton would cooperate to the fullest extent in meeting the problems that face law enforcement officials in the New England area. During the panel discussions he was represented by his administrative assistant, William K. Mackey. James L. Handley, agent in charge of the Boston FBI office.

Low Bidders For School Bus Ride

City Purchasing Agent Harold T. Pillsbury announced last week that the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company had submitted the lower of two bids on a contract to transport school pupils.

The contract was for daily runs and special trips. M. & B.'s bid for the daily runs was $27,078. The other bidder, Arnold Bus Company of Newton, bid $41,427. The latter company's bid for special trips was slightly lower than M. & B.'s, but M. & B. had the lower over-all bid.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

By JAMES G. COLBERT

Leaders in Goldwater Camp Not Singing Harmony Tunes

Leaders in Senator Barry Goldwater's Massachusetts camp are not exactly singing harmony songs.

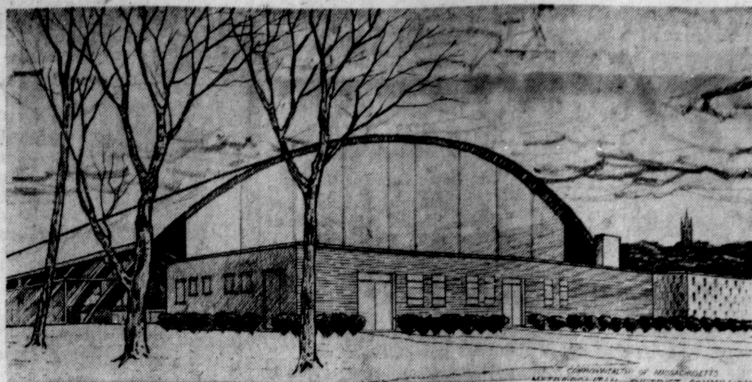

The offer by Lloyd B. Waring, Goldwater's New England campaign coordinator, to raise $375,000 to meet the Republican State Committee's national quota has met with strong behind-the-scenes objection from Goldwater lieutenants in the Bay State.

Waring, they claim, had no authorization to make such an offer. Furthermore, they assert that he did so strictly on his own and without consulting a single member of the executive group of the Goldwater campaign committee.

Whether the $375,000 Waring was quoted as promising the State Committee will ever be produced is something only time will determine.

From the remarks of other top Goldwater backers, however, it seems unlikely that it will be.

Sketch Of Recreation Building

$500,000 Rink Underway

An artificial ice-skating rink and recreational building, to be erected on the Newton-Brighton line, near the Watertown boundary, was approved for bidding this week by the Metropolitan District Commission.

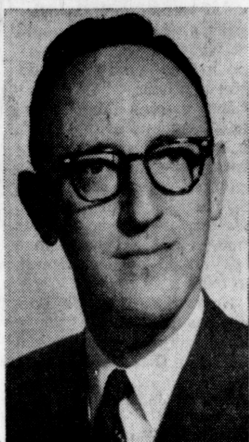

It is one of three such projects approved at a combined estimated cost of nearly $1,500,000. The other two will be located in Charlestown & Dorchester. Commissioner Robert F. Murphy, of the MDC, stated yesterday that he hopes to have all three skating-rinks ready for winter use. The one in this area will be located on Nonantum road on the banks of the Charles River.

The Newton project will serve three communities and will be expanded to include a recreation plant. This will include an illuminated Little League and soft-ball, soccer and football field with grandstand; also boat-launching ramps, parking area and service building.

The rink will be equipped with covered roof and service building and will be built at an estimated cost of $500,000.

DR. BERTRAM WINER Promotion For Dr. Winer Of Medical Staff

Dr. Bertram M. Winer of Newton Highlands has been promoted to a new position on the Harvard Faculty of Medicine. He is a member of the staff at Beth Israel Hospital.

Dr. Winer was named clinical associate in medicine at Harvard according to the announcement by Dr. George Packer Berry, Dean. The Newton doctor was appointed an associate in medicine at Beth Israel in 1952. He is presently an associate visiting physician.

He was graduated from New York Medical College in 1946 and interned at Boston City Hospital in 1946 and '47.

After a year at the Mallory Institute of Pathology in Boston as a fellow in medicine, Dr. Winer became associated with Beth Israel Hospital as an assistant resident. He was made chief resident in medicine in 1951-52.

He resides with his wife and family at 106 Upland Ave., in Newton Highlands.

Many Apply For 3rd Elderly House Unit

The Newton Housing Authority, which is proceeding rapidly with plans for its third housing unit for elderly persons of moderate means, has had 200 qualified applications, and new registrations are coming in at the rate of three per week, it was reported recently.

The board has authorized the issue of $163,000 in temporary notes for purchase of the site of the former Horace Mann School in Newtonville, from the city, and for plans and architect's fees. The area of 172,000 square feet is being bought for $1 a foot for construction of 72 one-bedroom units.

It is expected that bids will be advertised prior to October 1, and if the contract is awarded by Nov. 1, construction will begin immediately, according to Chairman William Carmen of the authority.

A fourth development of 56 units is in the planning stage.

Applications for apartments may be made to Edward T. Byrne at the authority's office, 111 Kennedy circle.

Other members of the authority are Mrs. Irene K. Thresher, John K. Bottomly, Joseph G. Snider and Richard H. Lovell.

Newton Vets Will Attend DAV Conclave

Two members of Chaplain William J. Farrell Chapter, DAV, of Newton, will attend the 1964 National Convention of the Disabled American Veterans in Phoenix, Arizona, August 17 to 21.

Chapter Commander Charles F. Atkinson announced that local convention delegates for the five-day meeting will be Department Commander John E. Boucher, 235 Tremont St., and J. Edward Theriault, chairman, Department Finance Committee, 46 Bridge St.

300 Local Kiddies Enjoy Kiwanis Day

More than 300 Newton youngsters, boys and girls, enjoyed a day of fun and festivity last Friday when they took part in the annual "Kids Day Program" held at Hanscom Field.

The event was sponsored by the Newton Kiwanis Club in cooperation with the United States Air Force.

At the Base, there were 2,000 other youngsters from the twelve Kiwanis Clubs comprising Division 5 West of New England Kiwanis, under the personal direction and promotion of Dr. Harold Schneiderman, lieutenant governor of the division.

Headquarters for the convention will be at the Hotel Westward-Ho in Phoenix.

Nuns Leaving Newton To Be Feted Sunday

The Newton Lodge of Elks will sponsor a "going away" party on Sunday, August 16 for the Sisters of St. Joseph who staff the St. Raphael's Home for the Blind, 770 Centre street.

The party will be held on the grounds at the home at 3 o'clock.

Effective August 18, the Archdiocese of Boston's Guild for the Blind will staff the home with lay personnel.

Officials of the Elks' Lodge here stated that over the years the Sisters have staffed the home and have made many friends in the area.

The event Sunday by the Elks will provide the opportunity for all friends to say their good-byes to the nuns.

Joseph Desmond and William Ryan, Elks committee chairmen, have announced that the general public will attend the affair.

West Newton Area Seeks More Meters

Petitions urging the city government to add to the parking meters installed in West Newton shopping area are being circulated by the merchants there.

Specified for installations are two municipal lots between Elm and Cherry Sts. Also asked are more off-street parking facilities to replace those lost when Putnam street spaces were taken for the toll road extension.

It is hoped by city officials that a part of the Putnam street lot will be returned to the city when the toll road is completed.

47,000 Voters In Primary Listings

Newton has 47,046 registered voters eligible to cast ballots in the September 10 primary. Election Commission Chairman Arthur G. Heaney reported last night.

This represents a drop of 286 below the enrollment for the 1962 primary.

The small decline in the city's voting strength is attributed to the fact that the primary comes earlier than usual this year and to the tremendous interest generated two years ago by the fight between Senator Edward M. Kennedy and former Attorney General Edward J. McCormack, Jr.

Indications are that the city will have about 50,000 persons on its voting rolls for the final November election, with big registration drives planned by both the Republicans and Democrats.

Figures tabulated by Commissioner Heaney disclosed that 1615 men and women enrolled as voters between June 1 and the close of registration last Friday night.

The final rush saw 367 persons register on Friday.

Well over 6000 qualified Newton citizens, however, have not taken the time and trouble to have their names placed on the city's voting lists.

An all-out effort to induce them to do so will be launched immediately after the primary.

The ladies will hold the balance of power in the primary.

LES BERMAN

Waban Man Is Assigned New Western Post

Les Berman of 46 Ferncroft Rd., Waban, has been appointed to the newly created position of sales coverage and distribution manager for S. C. Johnson & Son, Inc., (Johnson's Wax), Racine, Wis.

His new appointment became effective August 1st when he was assigned to the home office of the firm at Racine.

The Waban man has served in various capacities in the Johnson sales organization for more than 24 years. His most recent assignment was Boston district sales manager.

He is a graduate of MIT and a Lt. Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve.

coming primary if they choose to use it.

Election department statistics show that about 4000 more women than men are enrolled as voters in Newton.

There are about 1000 more Republicans than Democrats in Newton, but the Independents — voters who are not enrolled in either political party — out-number the Republicans.

Ward 5 has the greatest voting strength of the city's eight wards, and Ward 7 has the smallest number of registered voters.

Persons not now enrolled as voters will be ineligible to participate in the September primary. Registration of voters will be resumed on Sept. 11 — the day after the primary.

PERRY M. HUDSON

Newton Native Promoted With Phone Company

Perry M. Hudson, a native of Newton but now a resident of Maine, has been appointed general commercial supervisor of development by the New England Telephone Company.

He has been associated with the company for sixteen years and has worked in Boston in the sales, commercial, and public relations departments. He most recently was commercial manager in Maine.

He was born in Newton and is a graduate of Newton High School and Columbia University, Class of 1948. He served in World War II as a pilot with the 8th Air Force in Europe.

His wife is the former Eleanor Shea of Newton. They have four children, Jeffrey, 14; Susan, 12; Andrew, 7; and Dennis, seven months.

He was a resident of Needham from 1949 to 1960 where he was president of the Needham Taxpayers Association and a Town Meeting member.

The Hudsons now reside at 20 Old Fort road, Cape Elizabeth, Maine, where Mr. Hudson has served on the Town Committee and on the School Study Committee.

Democrats To Sponsor Night For Candidates

The Newton Democratic City Committee will hold a "Candidates Night" on Thursday evening, August 20, at 8 o'clock at the Clafin School, Lowell Avenue, Newtonville.

Herbert F. Regal, chairman, has announced that all Democratic candidates for state-wide and local offices have been invited.

The meeting is open to the public and city committee members have been urged to bring friends and neighbors to meet the candidates.

Arrangements for the meeting have been made by Edward Lavine, committee finance chairman; Nancy Havens, program chairman; and Edna Schwartz, publicity chairman.

A short business meeting of the city committee at 7:30 will precede the "Candidates Night" program.

New Building Figures Show Double Value

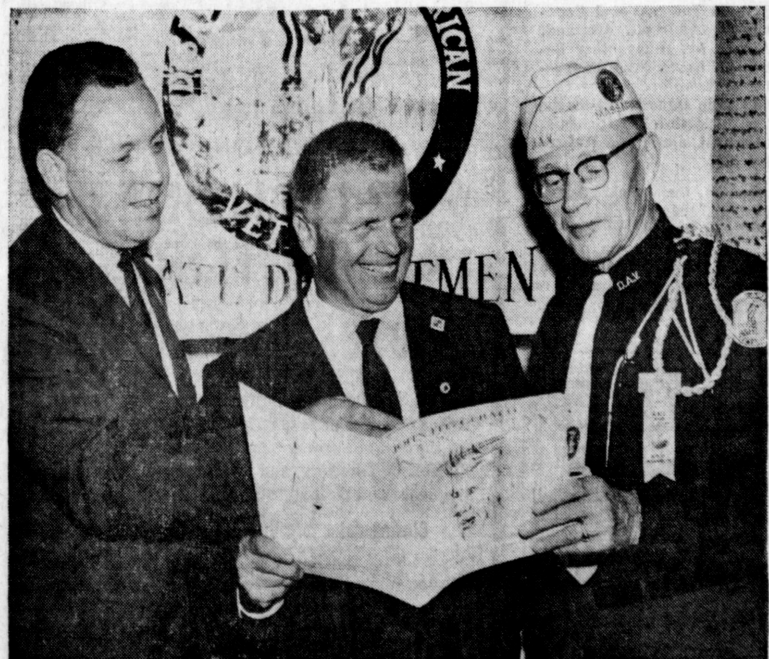

Newton's new construction in July was almost double the value of that in July of last year, and more than double the figure of the previous month of this year, according to Building Commissioner Vincent D. Burns.

He attributed the increase to the first garden-type apartments in Residence "D" Zone since that type of construction was made possible 10 years ago.

The 54 permits issued last month were for $850,675 worth of new construction. In July of 1963, the 59 permits issued had a value of only $448,285. In June of this year, the 71 permits had a value of $404,747.

The permits of last month included six to Antoni Franchi of 115 Albermarle road, Newtonville, for apartment houses at North and Farwell streets, Newtonville, in a Residence "D" Zone.

According to Mr. Burns' report, the year's first seven months saw 335 permits issued for $8,400,923. During that period in 1963, there were 346 permits for $4,984,130 worth of construction.

Local Man Dies In Auto Crash

Kenneth F. Giracca, 46, of 111 Hanson road, Newton Centre, was killed in South Amherst last week, when his car struck a cement bridge on Route 116 and caromed into a truck.

An inspector for a Waltham engineering firm, he was inspecting sewers in the Amherst area, it was reported.

New Patrolman Goes On Duty

Stephen S. Smith Jr., 196 Cypress street, Newton Centre, became a Newton Police patrolman last Monday afternoon.

He was appointed by Chief Philip Purcell to fill a vacancy which followed the retirement of Capt. Charles E. Walker.

Patrolman Smith is a Newton High School graduate and was an Air Force sergeant with service in the Korean conflict. For the past nine years he was employed in the General Motors Buick Division at Newton Highlands.

Fire Department Aids Local Firm's Contest

An unusual and successful safety slogan contest was sponsored recently by the Wexler Construction Company of Newton with the cooperation of the Newton Fire Department.

The contest, triggered by the loss of an entire family of seven persons in a home fire in Beverly in April, was held for the children of the company's 500 employees.

There were no local winners, first prize going to Howard M. Shugrue, 12, of Wrentham, a $100 savings bond; second, Gerald Landry, 12, of Dracut, a $50 savings bond; and third, Lauren Giacchino, 9, of Woburn, a $25 savings bond. Twelve other children were winners of President Kennedy half dollars.

Newton Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins and Lt. Joseph T. Fitzsimmons worked closely with contest officials in helping assure its success.

The local fire department officials were present at the awarding of prizes as were William Kopans, president, and Irving Wexler, vice president of the sponsoring company. Second place winner, Gerald Landry, of Dracut, was confined to his home with an attack of mumps and couldn't attend the ceremonies.

Wexler Construction Company officials highly praised the cooperation of the Newton Fire Department in conducting the contest.

"We are fortunate in having had the help of the Newton Fire Department," said Mr. Wexler, who founded the company safety program in 1954. "This contest couldn't have been carried out to a successful conclusion, without their help and prestige," he stated.

"Too few people realize how valuable a service our Fire Department perform in the field of fire prevention as well as in the field of fire fighting," Mr. Wexler went on. "We are grateful to the Newton Fire Department for its inspiration and help in this common effort to reduce what we consider to be the worst possible kind of accident, the death of a child in a home fire."

Chairman Rogers pointed out that this tournament is for local people and hoped for many entries from the West Suburban area.

The deadline for entries has been set for Saturday, August 15 at 6 p. m. It was announced that no late entries will be accepted. Players should be prepared to play the following week with the finals set for Saturday, August 22nd. All play will be on clay courts. For further information call the Newton YMCA at BI 4-6050.

Lt. Drew And Sgt. Cox Feted

Two newly promoted members of the Newton Police Department were given a reception last Monday afternoon at headquarters, with nearly 100 friends and relatives attending.

The promotions of Lt. Walter D. Drew and Sgt. James V. Cox became effective the previous day.

Lt. Drew was made leader of Platoon 2. Sgt. Cox was transferred from the detective bureau to relief duty in all three platoons.

New Planner To Set Program

James A. Miller, the city's first full-time planner, will meet shortly with Mayor Donald L. Gibbs and Planning Consultant Charles E. Downe to discuss a program of planning for Newton.

A Natick resident, Mr. Miller has purchased a home at 67 Bourne St., Auburndale.

He was director of last year's federally sponsored urban renewal survey for Newton. The new department's assistant planner will be John L. Simmons of 24 Elmwood St., Newton, a junior planner of last year's survey.

WILLIAM F. NOURSE

William Nourse Opposes Martin In GOP Primary

Former State Representative William F. Nourse of Medford this week announced his candidacy for Republican nomination for Representative in Congress from the Tenth Congressional District.

Nourse, who served four terms in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, is challenging Congressman Joseph W. Martin Jr. of North Attleboro. Congressman Martin now is serving his 40th year in the national House.

"We are in a special era of fast-moving events and developments," he said. "They have created vast and complex problems which require youth and vigor as well as experience to seek prompt and decisive solutions."

"Congressman Martin has had a long successful career. He has been an outstanding Republican leader who has performed great services to his Party and his Nation. However, the time demands a more energetic course than a 79-year-old political veteran can follow."

"No one in the 10th Congressional District thinks more highly of the fine old gentleman than I do. But I also believe that the people require a change in leadership."

The 41-year-old Nourse is a practicing attorney. He is a graduate of Boston University and Boston University Law School.

While in the Massachusetts House of Representatives from the 8th Norfolk District, Nourse served on the Committees of Banks and Banking, Pensions and Old Age Assistance, Constitutional Law and Metropolitan Affairs. He was also a member of the Penal Commission.

He is a veteran of World War II, serving in Italy with the 15th U. S. Air Force. He received the Purple Heart for injuries received when his plane was shot down into the Adriatic Sea while returning from a bombing mission. He was rescued after being afloat on a life raft for three days.

Nourse is married to the former Carlene Malloy of Medford, who was staff assistant to former Governors Christian A. Herter and John A. Volpe.

Communities in the 10th Congressional District include Needham, Dover, Newton, Foxboro, Medfield, Norfolk, Plainville, Walpole, Wellesley, Westwood, Wrentham, Attleboro, Berkley, Dighton, Easton, Fall River, Freetown, Mansfield, North Attleboro, Norton, Raynham, Rehoboth, Seekonk, Somerset, Swansea and Taunton.

fice, gave a brief and simple explanation of the new Civil Rights Law. He declared that, as is usually the case with new laws, it will be some time before all questions relating to it can be answered with accuracy.

Its provisions must undergo a trial period, he said, before law officers can acquire all the information necessary to their enforcement. There were question periods in connection with the three sections of discussion, but no civil rights questions were asked.

In addition to Chief Philip Purcell, the members of the Newton Police Department in attendance included: Capt. John N. McMullen and William F. Quinn, Lt. Albert Yanco, Sgts. Martin F. Greeley, Paul Donahue, Richard J. Nugent and James E. Halloran, Inspectors David H. Kerr, Richard J. Bagley, Thomas M. Dargan, James V. Cox and Francis W. Turner, and Patrolmen Raymond J. Thibeault, William H. Dowling, John J. Kearney and Ernest S. Daly.

Agent Thomas L. McEnaney of Newton assisted Agent Handley in arrangements for the meeting.

Samuel J. Patriacca, 48 Holden Rd., West Newton, has been accepted for admission to Wentworth Institute in Boston this fall for the coming Newton Police Department in academic year.

PAUL F. MALLOY

Paul F. Malloy Candidate For Seat In House

Attorney Paul F. Malloy, Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives from the legislative district which takes in Wards 1, 2 and 3 of Newton as well as Ward 6 of Waltham, has opened Ward 1 headquarters at 376 Wattertown st., Newton.

Malloy expressed gratification with the results of a registration drive conducted from that headquarters under the direction of Anthony D. Pellegrini of 58 Clifton street, Newton.

He declared that his candidacy for the Legislature is pledged to the interest of wage-earners and persons in the limited income group in the district where he is seeking election.

Malloy voiced the conviction that an unequivocal anti-sales tax stand and a Johnson-type economy drive at the State House would most benefit those groups.

In his first campaign for public office last fall, Attorney Malloy came close to unseating a Newton Republican Alderman-at-Large. He polled a big portion of his vote in Wards 1, 2 and 3 where he is now a candidate for Representative.

He is a practicing attorney, is married to the former Sally Quinn, daughter of Lawrence Quinn of Newtonville, and is the father of two children. Attorney Malloy is the son of college President Matthew J. Malloy who lives at 734 Centre street, Newton.

Former President Joins Fight

That the rising surge of youthful delinquency, violence and vandalism, is reaching something akin to crisis proportions in the land is attested to by the recent action of former President Herbert Hoover.

The still active former chief executive, far from resting on his laurels, took the recent occasion of his 90th birthday anniversary to launch a major campaign to fight juvenile delinquency.

Only within the present week, a Roman Catholic priest suggested the formation of citizen vigilantes to help thwart increased vandalism in public places by young hooligans.

Added to the crimes of violence perpetrated by teen-aged hoodlums is a recent one which was horribly unique. The young victims of an attacking gang of boys had to be treated for multiple human bites.

Completely senseless in its conception, but awesomely vicious in its execution, was the wrecking of the interior of a Jewish temple by a pack of youngsters, the oldest of which had reached the advanced age of twelve years. This gang of young terrorists comprised ten pre-teens, three of whom were girls. Their childish escapade ran up a total property loss of $10,000.

These are only a few recent incidents picked at random from a staggering total of major and minor crimes attributed to kids today.

We must inject the usual reminder that the majority of teen-agers are good kids, alert to their responsibilities and acting with a true concept of their future roles in this great nation.

This in no way excuses the excesses of the violent minority among them.

The good kids loudly lament the fact that all teen-agers are being sullied with the tar brush of incrimination. This is not so, and no adult carries any feeling of reproach where orderly youngsters are concerned.

But, facts are facts and crimes committed by boys and girls between 12 years old and twenty must carry the tag-mark of being the work of the so-called teen-agers. They cannot be called men and women, or adults.

If the law-abiding among the teen set resent the implication cast upon them maybe they should do something about the miscreants in their ranks. Their counsel and advice would carry great weight in many instances. In a manner of speaking, they could set their own house in order.

In the meantime, it must be the problem of our law enforcement agencies to cope with the situation. These agencies are making valiant and experienced strides but often are under-manned in a manner to seriously restrict their policies and action.

They deserve the respect and co-operation of all adults, whether parents or not, and should be encouraged and assisted in the efforts being made. Let us put the sympathy where it belongs which is not with the vandal and the violent among our youth.

Find Preventive Measure

In his campaign against juvenile delinquency, former President Hoover stresses preventive measures to be employed in the nation-wide effort.

Active for most of his life in youth programs, Mr. Hoover declares, "We must organize prevention, whatever the merits of punishment may be."

Principal among the preventive measures he suggests is the establishment of youth-guidance organizations such as the Boys' Clubs of America. Mr. Hoover says, "We need 1,000 Boys' Clubs for one million deserving American boys."

At the present time, approximately 600,000 youngsters are enrolled in some 635 Clubs. Mr. Hoover has served as board chairman of the Boys' Clubs of America for the past 28 years. He describes Boys' Clubs as being "the greatest character-building institutions in our country today."

Newton is fortunate to be among the communities possessing a Boys Club. Staffed by dedicated adults it contributes a most vital community service. It is one of Newton's foundation stones.

Business, industry, political leaders, in addition to civic, service, fraternal and labor organizations have pledged their support to the former Chief Executive in his goal to achieve 1,000 Boys' Clubs in the nation.

"Juvenile decency" will be further served if the Hoover ambition is achieved. It is a great and worthy cause.

Convention To Be Greeted By Local Resident

Edward S. Redstone, of Newton, president of the National Association of Concessionaires and treasurer and vice president of the Northeast Drive-In Theatre Corp., Boston, will extend greetings to the conventioners at the Eastern Regional Conference sponsored by the National Association of Concessionaires at the Mayflower Hotel, Plymouth, August 24-26.

The conference is being staged in conjunction with the annual convention of the Theatre Owners of New England.

Philip L. Lowe, of Lowe Merchandising Service, Newton Centre, a past president of the National Association of Concessionaires, will conduct a visual presentation depicting innovations and the latest trends in refreshment centers.

Former Local Resident Gets DuPont Transfer

Robert B. Noble, former Newton resident, has been transferred by Du Pont's Photo Products Department to the graphic arts sales development and technical service laboratory in Parlin, N. J. He is a graphic arts specialist.

Mr. Noble is a graduate (1949) of Newton High School and received a bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering at Tufts University in 1953.

Previously, he had been a technical representative responsible for the sale of professional, industrial, and graphic arts photographic products in Detroit.

It is scheduled to open at 57 Franklin St. in November. Backman, one of the incorporators and investors, is president of the Advance Insurance Agency and the Labac Insurance Agency of Boston, representing more than 15 insurance companies. A life member of the "Million Dollar Round Table," he is also a consultant to educational and financial institutions and professional groups. Political Highlights

First, they insist that Waring has no way of raising $375,000 and that $150,000 would be a much more realistic sum—if, indeed, any money at all is turned over to the State Committee by the Goldwater camp.

Second, they declare that they are not about to agree to give any money whatever to the State Committee unless there is a firm agreement that Goldwater will be included in all State Committee activities and that the committee will not furnish funds to any candidates for state-wide office who repudiate Goldwater.

That has all the makings of a sticky political situation. Attorney General Edward W. Brooke, for example, has no intention of championing Goldwater's cause. How far ex-Governor John A. Volpe will be willing to go in aligning himself with Goldwater is very uncertain. Brooke and Volpe between them pretty well control the GOP State Committee.

Brooke - Hennigan Battle Looms As Interesting One

One of the most interesting election battles which will be fought after the primary will be between Republican Attorney General Edward W. Brooke and Democratic State Senator James W. Hennigan, Jr.

Both Brooke and Hennigan are unopposed for nomination in their respective political parties.

While they are doing what campaigning they can during the summer vacation season, they will mount their big drives in mid-September after the primary contests have been settled and the voters are more disposed to listen to political candidates.

Brooke may be forced to curtail his own campaigning during the autumn because of the duties of his office.

It is understood on Beacon Hill that Brooke will be going before a Grand Jury in the fall in quest of more indictments, some based on his own investigations, some on the basis of Crime Commission probes.

Hennigan, on the other hand, will not be tied down and will be free to stump across the State as, indeed, he has been doing since last spring.

Brooke has one big advantage over Hennigan. He is better known than the Jamaica Plain Senator. He has been over the State in both the 1960 and 1962 election campaigns, and he has commanded attention and respect as Attorney General.

By contrast Hennigan is making his first run for state-wide office.

Some political analysts, however, believe that Brooke still has to prove himself as a vote-getter.

They argue that Brooke lost to Secretary of State Kevin H. White in 1960 and that the massive plurality he piled up in winning the Attorney Generalship in 1962 resulted from the fact that large numbers of Democrats and Independents either voted against Francis E. Kelly or blanked the contest by not voting at all.

JOHN RAITT

John Raitt In
'Oklahoma' For
Carousel Stage

"Oklahoma!" the fabulous musical comedy success that first brought together the team of Rodgers and Hammerstein, will star John Raitt at Frank Connelly's Carousel Theater, Framingham, the week of Monday, Aug. 17 through Saturday, Aug. 22.

Mr. Raitt, one of Carousel's most popular performers, returns to the tent to recreate the role of Curley. He first played this part in the national company in Chicago, and this led to his portrayal of Billy Bigelow in "Carousel" on Broadway in 1945, for which he won both the Drama Critics and Donaldson awards for the best performance of the year.

"Oklahoma!" based on the play, "Green Grow the Lilacs," so revolutionized musical comedy by its sensitive and skillful integration of story, dance and song, that nearly all musical shows that followed it are deeply in debt. Despite the lapse of over 20 years since it opened on Broadway, it remains as fresh and imaginative as the day it premiered. The familiar songs that have lost none of their charm include "Oh, What A Beautiful Morning," "Surrey With the Fringe on Top," "People Will Say We're in Love," and "Oklahoma!"

Appearing with John Raitt will be Eileen Christy as Laurie, Ruth Gillette as Aunt Eller, Mary Louise Wilson as Ado Annie (the girl that just "can't say no"), Renato C. Belli, Peter Conlow, Charles Forster and Edward Fuller.

Revised Schedules For Playgrounds Announced

Newton Recreation Commissioner, John B. Penney, announced this week that twenty of Newton's thirty supervised playgrounds will remain open with reduced leadership for the remainder of August. The regular eight week full-scale program ends this week, August 14th.

The following playgrounds will close on this date as scheduled: Boyd, Davis, Farlow, Hawthorne, Richardson, Stearns, Ward, Weeks Jr. High, West Newton, Williams. All other playgrounds will remain open for two additional weeks until August 28th; but with, in most cases, only one leader on duty.

The following playgrounds will have leaders on duty Monday through Friday mornings and afternoons: Albenarle, Angier, Cabot, Carr, Emerson, Highlands, Franklin, Lower Falls, Memorial, Murray Road, Newton High School, Pierce, Thompsonville, Wellington, Upper Falls, and Victory.

Auburndale, Burr and Newton Centre Playgrounds will have leaders on duty Monday through Friday mornings, afternoons and evenings as well as Saturday and Sunday mornings and afternoons.

Swim Pools Control Rules Are Adopted

The long-pending ordinance for control of residential swimming pools was adopted by the Board of Aldermen at the recent meeting.

It had been the subject of considerable debate during several of the Board's meetings, and it was evident that the members were determined to make effective only the best possible set of rules to guard the safety and health of the city's pool owners and their families and friends.

On recommendation of Dr. Henry M. Greenleaf, health department head, a provision in one of the earlier drafts for pool inspection by that department was omitted. The doctor had declared that his department lacked facilities for such inspections.

The requirements set by the aldermen include drainage facilities approval by the city engineer, protective walls or fences around outdoor pools and inspection of lighting facilities to prevent possible electric shock to pool users.

The new rules are not applicable to existing residential pools until six months after the date of enactment.

Wide Variety Of Crime Reported To Police Of Newton This Week

The list of crimes reported to Newton police the past week was varied indeed, the offenses ranging from arson and a shooting to a post office robbery.

An incendiary fire last Saturday that burned up two freight carloads of lumber valued at $10,000 was attributed to teenagers. The fire was at the rear of 49 Winchester street, Newton Highlands, and the lumber belonged to the National Lumber Company, 18 Easy street. Fire Chief Perkins, who investigated with a lieutenant from the state fire marshal's office, reported that the seals on the cars had been broken.

Three Newton boys who were chasing a hit and run car last week in Allston, told police that someone in the car had side-swiped their car and fired a shot at them. A flattened slug was found on the floor of their car. The boys, Albert Wallace, 16, of 9 Howe street, Auburndale, Edward Boudreau, 17, of 19 Court street, Newtonville, and Donald Maley, 19, of 37 Lewis street, Newtonville told Newton police they were not injured.

A break in the Newton Lower Falls post office was reported to the police early last Monday morning. Robert Williams, an employee, said two postage machines were looted.

Also reported Monday was the theft of a 300-pound vending machine for the Square Meal Diner, 274 California street, Newton. It was found in Victory Field with a case and a half of tonic and a dollar's worth of change missing.

A burglar bypassed the burglar alarm at the Bieringer-Hanauer Company, 1029 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, according to a report to the police Monday. The thief or thieves got in through the roof, instead of through a window that was wired for an alarm. A safe in the cigar company's office was looted of between $300 and $400, and a quick check showed a quan-

WHO NEEDS money?

Everyone does. It takes money to meet personal and family needs as a matter of daily living. But sometimes these needs become temporarily more than normal. Perhaps there's an illness and medical bills pile up. You may want to buy a new car, take a trip or purchase clothing. Or it's time to pay college tuition for a son or daughter. This is when it's time to consider a loan, just as the growing business does to fill its requirements for progress.

If you have a temporary need for more money, come in and talk to us about borrowing some. At Newton Savings, you get quick confidential service, low bank rates and life insurance is included at no additional cost. Visit our nearest office or phone Mr. Cloonen at 969-7500.

500 Elderly Residents Seek New Home Tax Cut

Approximately 500 elderly Newton home-owners have applied for tax abatements under a new law which became effective this year.

Their tax bills will be reduced a total of $126,800.

Some additional applications are expected by city assessors before the October deadline for filing such petitions.

Under the new law an elderly home-owner who meets certain requirements can have the assessment on his or her home reduced by $400.

With a Newton tax rate of $63.40, a $400 reduction in assessment represents a cut of $25.36 on the tax bill.

To be eligible for that abatement a person must meet these requirements:

Either the husband or wife must have been 70 years old last January 1.

The income of a married couple cannot exceed $5000 a year, and for a single person it cannot be more than $4000 annually.

The applicant must have resided in Massachusetts for 10 years, must have owned his home for five years and must have lived in it since last January 1.

If you meet those requirements, you can file an application for a $4000 reduction in the assessment on your home. The application must be filed with the board of assessors at Newton City Hall on or before October 1 to be considered.

Chairman Edward A. Fahey of the Board of Assessors said the number of such applications from Newton home-owners has far exceeded expectations.

Fahey told The Graphic he anticipated earlier in the year that about 100 petitions would be submitted for abatements by elderly property-owners.

Instead, he disclosed, about 500 such applications already have been received, and still more are expected.

Approximately 100 of the petitions were submitted by disabled veterans who had been getting a $2000 reduction in the assessment on their homes but who shifted in order to obtain the larger amount.

Fahey said the $126,800 which must be cut from Newton tax bills on the basis of

Chestnut Hill Towers Project Hearing Monday

The many times delayed multi-million-dollar project for construction of Chestnut Hill Towers at 250 Hammond Pond pkwy., Chestnut Hill, will be given still another hearing next Monday night before the Board of Aldermen and the Newton Planning Board.

Technicalities have frequently arisen to defer a start on construction of the two multiple dwelling units and their related dining rooms and other facilities.

At the last meeting of the Aldermen, three weeks ago, Harry H. Ham Jr., chairman of the aldermanic committee on Claims and Rules, called board's attention to the city's ruling that cars could not be parked within a structure's set-back area. That, Ham declared, served "to confound" the petition of Chestnut Hill Towers, Inc.

If that technicality should be removed, it is likely the project can get underway without further delay.

Hearings of the two petitions, one for permissive use and the other for a change in

Local Church Aids Protestant Center

Officials of the First Church, Congregational, in Newton, climaxed a successful 300th anniversary celebration recently with a check to aid the special work being done at Protestant Blue Hill Center, Roxbury, and at Brookshire Hospital in the Philippines.

Rev. Frank M. Weiskel, minister at the First Church, who took part in the presentation ceremony, said that the initial check by the committee would symbolize the spirit of celebrating while giving to home and foreign missions.

It also was announced that the funds will be divided equally between both groups.

Newton Doctor Pledges Help To Little Girl

A warm and personal relationship between a Newton Centre doctor and a 10-year-old girl in Bogota, Columbia, is coming to pass.

Through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., of New York, Dr. Charles E. Magraw of 34 Ballard St. has "financially" adopted the little girl, whose father and mother are in poor health, and who is one of a family of several children who have never known anything but deep poverty.

An "adoption" of this kind is financial, but not legal. The foster parent promises to contribute $15 a month for the child's support for at least a year. And meantime, every month, Dr. Magraw, having joined the fast-growing group of foster parents, will get a letter from little Gloria Luz Lozano. The letter and its translation will be forwarded to him by Foster Parents Plan. The doctor may reply to the monthly communications, describing life in this part of the United States, and urging the child to acquire good study habits.

Gloria's father works as a mason's helper, and occasionally can earn $30 a month. Her mother has a kidney ailment and suffers from rheumatism. Their house in La-Granja, a poor district of North Bogota, costs the family $10 a month, and gasoline for cooking costs an extra $1.50.

Local Lions At Toronto

Four members of the Newton Lions Club, Elliott Beverly, Alfred Mouser, Sidney Ober and Lawrence Kadis, represented the club at the recent Lions International Convention held at Toronto, Canada.

Approximately 40,000 Lions attended the event from all over the world.

A special honor was bestowed upon the Newton Club when two members, Elliott Beverly and Alfred Mouser, were selected to carry the huge banner which headed the Massachusetts delegation.

This is the first time that two members of the same club have been chosen to head a delegation in the convention parade.

Lions Clubs are dedicated to fund raising to aid in eye research, the discovery and prevention of blindness.

Included in this great program is the sponsorship of glaucoma clinics where free tests are made by specialists to ascertain if inroads of the stealthy disease are taking place in the eyes.

Row Over Mississippi Group Vexes Bay State Delegates

Probably the most difficult decision members of the Massachusetts delegation to the Democratic national convention will make at Atlantic City next week will be how to vote on the issue of seating an all-white Mississippi contingent.

Strong pressure has been exerted on the Bay State delegates to vote to oust the segregationist group and to champion the cause of an integrated Democratic Freedom Party delegation.

However, some top Massachusetts Democratic leaders believe that President Johnson will desire to avoid a floor fight on the issue. That was why the matter was left unresolved at a recent meeting of the State's delegation.

Morris Kritzman Candidate For State Senate

Former State Representative Morris Kritzman of 125 Oakdale Rd., Newton Highlands, is a Democratic candidate for the State Senate in the Norfolk-Middlesex district which includes Needham, Dedham, Weston, Wellesley and Wards 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8 of Newton.

Kritzman is unopposed for the Democratic nomination and will contest with Republican State Senator Leslie B. Cutler in the November election.

As a State Representative from the Ward 14 section of Boston in 1939 and 1940, Kritzman championed many legislative "firsts."

He was the first to propose a Boston branch of the University of Massachusetts. He was the first legislator to sponsor a bill requiring state teachers' colleges to broaden their curricula and authorizing them to grant liberal arts degrees. He was the first legislator to introduce a bill to outlaw discrimination in employment because of race, religion or national origin.

In offering his candidacy to the voters of the district, Kritzman expressed the conviction that there is an immediate need for new directions and new solutions to the many complex problems facing suburban areas because of their rapid population growth.

"State-wide planning is necessary to assure continued job opportunities in Massachusetts industries for our scientists, engineers and technicians who are increasingly being affected by setbacks in defense contracts," he declared.

"For example, cooperation in our metropolitan areas is essential if we are to provide more adequate public transportation links between our cities and towns," Kritzman continued.

"Cooperative planning is a must to protect our remaining green areas from exploitation by large-scale housing and business developments. Only through planning together

Lowest Bidder Loses Contract

The contract for repainting the visitors' bleachers at Newton High School's Dickinson Stadium may be awarded to the second lowest bidder because the low bidder neglected to enclose the required check when the bid was submitted, according to Purchasing Agent Harold R. Pillsbury.

Thrown out was the bid of Avondale Paint Company of Boston, whose figure was $975. The next lowest bid, $1040, was that of John W. Egan Company of Brookline.

Political Highlights

Johnson will be running the Atlantic City convention by remote control. His orders will be carried out in almost every instance. Whether he will seek to prevent a floor fight and roll call on the seating of the Mississippi delegation—and whether he will be successful to the latter half of that question.

The Massachusetts delegation may provide the latter half of that question.

A roll call can be obtained at the request of the delegations from eight States. Seven contingents already have indicated they will seek one. If Massachusetts lines up with them, there'll be a roll call and a floor fight.

The problem probably is just as vexing for President Johnson as it is for the Bay State delegates.

The all-white Mississippi delegation is anti-civil rights. It opposes the law which LBJ himself placed on the books. The likelihood is that it will vote against the platform adopted by the national convention. Mississippi's Presidential electors haven't voted for a Democratic nominee for the Presidency since 1948. Senator Barry Goldwater is favored to carry the State over Johnson this year.

If President Johnson delegates presumably would create that he wants no floor open new wounds and arouse fight over the seating of the Mississippi delegation, it will mean that he is looking beyond Mississippi to the rest of the South which is sympathetic to the segregationist Mississippi group.

LBJ is desperately anxious to carry as many Southern states as possible, both as a matter of pride and because they might prove necessary to achieve his election.

His lieutenants in the old Confederacy have adopted the campaign pitch that Johnson himself is a Southerner, that as a Senator he was a friend of the South, that he is still a friend of the South and that the South should adhere to tradition and stand by him.

A pitched battle between the North and the South over the seating of the Mississippi Most of the Bay State dele-

Road Work In City Expedited

Newton's street betterment program has been brought through 1962, a list prepared by Public Works Director Willard S. Pratt reveals.

The city has gained approximately a year on the program by reducing the gap between the petition for street betterment and its acceptance by the Board of Aldermen, Mr. Pratt stated.

The Aldermen recently approved appropriations for three streets and held hearings for four others, and in so doing paved the way for progress of the city's road work.

gates are more interested in the political implications of the controversy than in the legal ramifications.

Almost all the members of the Massachusetts delegation are anxious to do exactly what President Johnson wants them to do. They have no enthusiasm for displeasing him by turning down any request he makes.

But some Bay State delegates will be in a very awkward position on this particular question. If they don't join in the fight to throw out the all-white Mississippi contingent—regardless of any legal technicalities—they'll offend substantial groups in Massachusetts.

Democratic State Committee-woman Ruth Batson of Roxbury, a Negro, has been pressing the issue and apparently has no intention of dropping it. Negro civil rights leaders are vigorously supporting her stand.

Some delegates who will be running either in the primary or the fall election will be injured where it hurts most—in the ballot boxes—if they fail to vote against seating the segregationist Mississippi group.

They don't, however, comprise a majority of the Massachusetts contingent, and they probably will be outvoted if President Johnson puts on the pressure.

This is the issue which is troubling Bay State delegates most as they prepare to leave for Atlantic City.

It is the issue which could explode into the most fiery row of the entire convention if LBJ doesn't sweep it under the rug.

Some other State, of course, may become the eighth to request a roll call. In such an event the die would be cast and the battle joined, and all the convention delegates would have to stand up and be counted.

There are still other unusual sidelights to this story.

When a row broke out in the Senate Space Committee over the selection of a site for the NASA electronics center, Massachusetts Congressmen appealed to Senator John C. Stennis of Mississippi to vote for the Greater Boston site.

Stennis did so and persuaded several fellow Southerners to join with him. Now Stennis is reminding the Bay State Congressmen that he gave them a helping hand when they requested it on a most important matter.

Speaker John W. McCormack is the convention chairman and the man President Johnson is counting on to maintain the greatest harmony possible between the North and the South.

McCormack is highly respected by the Southern Congressmen. When he has asked them to support some measure beneficial to Massachusetts, they invariably have done so.

No one in public life has a better civil rights record than John McCormack. But he will be in an embarrassing dilemma if a fight develops over a move to throw out Mississippi Senators and Congressmen who have helped Massachusetts at his behest.

Festival A Success

Editor of The Graphic:

During the spring and summer, while the 1964 Arts Festival has been in operation, this office has been sending you release materials on a regular basis.

I am writing now to thank you for the use you have made of them and for your help in telling your audience about their Festival.

While it is too early to tell, we do feel that we have been able to accomplish much that we hoped to do in this extended season. One thing is certain and that is that we could not have done it without your cooperation and interest.

I hope that you will excuse this form way of saying it and know that we mean it when we say, THANK YOU!

Cordially,

Conserve Our Water

Editor of The Graphic:

Does a plan for conserving our water resources create a dramatic picture and arouse interest in the minds of our readers? Probably not—until restricted use or a flood or drought which results in fires which destroy thousands of acres of valuable woodland or "dirty" (polluted) water affects the interest of all of us.

There is an urgent need for constructive and coordinated planning to seek means to avoid such catastrophes. A Water Resources Planning Act (S-1111) to set up a Water Resources Council with a federal-state river-basin planning commission and grants-in-aid for state water planning program has already passed the Senate, and is now a "sleeper" in the Irrigation and Reclamation Subcommittee of the House Interior and Insular Committee.

If it is tied up much longer, time will be too short to get action by the House before Congress adjourns. This would mean the task would have to be done all over again in the next Congress.

Our Congressman, Joseph Martin, could undoubtedly be persuaded to use his considerable influence to get a favorable report and then prompt action by the House if enough of his constituents wrote him of their concern.

Sound Of Music For Benefit Of All The Blind

Mrs. George P. Norton and Mrs. William H. Ellis Jr., both of Newton, are helping to promote a performance of "Sound of Music" to be presented Wednesday evening, Sept. 2, at the North Shore Theater in Beverly for the benefit of the Boston Catholic Guild for All the Blind.

Through the year, the Guild, under the leadership of the Rev. Thomas Carroll, has become an organization dedicated to the service of all blind persons, to the establishment of centers for their rehabilitation, and to research in all problems involved in blindness.

A special feature of the evening at the theater will be the presence of Baroness Maria Von Trapp, whose life centers around the theme of "Sound of Music."

tion and guidance will come from such words as these, written by George Washington in 1790:

"The Citizens of the United States of America have a right to applaud themselves for having given to Mankind examples of an enlarged and liberal policy, a policy worthy of imitation. All possess alike liberty of conscience and immunities of citizenship. It is now no more that toleration is spoken of, as if it was by the indulgence of one class of people that another enjoyed the exercise of their inherent natural rights. For happily the Government of the United States, which gives to bigotry no sanction, to persecution no assistance requires only that they who live under its protection should demean themselves as good citizens, in giving it on all occasions their effectual support."

Yours sincerely,
 David A. Lurensky

Among other items that may be acted upon are the following:

Two requests by the director of public works, one for an appropriation of $6500 to continue the tree-pruning program, and one for $5000 to install a pedestrian traffic light at Capital and Watertown streets, Newton.

A request by Mayor Donald L. Gibbs for $30,000 for demolition and carting away of materials, plus necessary landscape work at the site of the old Mason School building on Centre street.

Alderman William Carman's recommendation that parking rules in the general area of Boston College be revised to cover all streets where there might be student parking, and specification of all the area's streets, including the Beacon street section, as "towing areas."

Also coming up for action is the petition of John Dolan Oil Company, Inc., for erecting of a structure for garaging the company's motor vehicles at 153 Concord street, Newton Lower Falls. This was the item on which Alderman Winslow C. Auryansen imposed a charter objection at the previous meeting.

the applications already processed represents about 43 cents on the city's tax rate.

He pointed out, however, that the additional expense to the city is actually about $114,180 since the 100 disabled veterans already were receiving abatements which would have lowered their tax bills $126.80 apiece.

Chairman Fahey reported that there has been no unusual increase in abatement petitions from other homeowners as a result of the city-wide revaluation of residential properties put into effect at the start of this year.

He said that about 250 abatement petitions have been filed by homeowners who claim their dwellings are over-assessed. That is a normal number, Fahey added.

Quebec Honeymoon Followed Pollack-Goran Wedding

Quebec was the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. Ethan A. Pollack (Ruth I. Goran), whose marriage took place recently at Temple Sinai in Brookline.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Melvin Goran of 188 Bellevue street, Newton, and the late Mr. Goran. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Esther D. Pollack of Highland Park, N. J.

Rabbi Beryl D. Cohen performed the one o'clock afternoon service which was followed by a reception.

The bride wore a gown fashioned of white organdy. The fitted bodice had a square neckline and short sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt was appliqued with lace.

Her pearl trimmed pill box cap held in place her shoulder-length illusion veil. She carried a crescent bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Judith Pollack of Highland Park, N. J. sister of the bridegroom was the bride's sole attendant.

Jeremy Pollack of Highland Park, N. J., brother of the bridegroom served as best man. The ushers were Jonathan Pollack of Highland Park, N. J., and John Goran of Newton.

The couple are making their home in Amherst.

Sulphuric acid was one of the first chemicals made in America.

Do you know
the 3 most common reasons
why people borrow money from our bank?

1. To consolidate bills.

It's much easier to pay only one bill each month instead of several. You'll enjoy all the advantages of low-cost borrowing while you build your credit rating in the community.

2. To buy appliances.

Whether a new washing machine, refrigerator, stove... whatever appliance suits your fancy... the place to borrow the money for it is at any one of the nearby Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company offices.

3. For home improvements.

When you improve your home, you add new convenience, bring new beauty to it. More importantly, you help increase its resale value. How about getting those home improvements underway... now?

Almost everyone has to borrow money at one time or another. If it's your turn to seek extra cash, you've only to stop in and discuss your Personal Loan needs with the specialists at any one of our neighborhood offices.

Remember, you and your banking needs are the reason for our being in business.

DR. KURT J. ISSELBACHER

Celiac Disease Study Award To Newton Doctor

A project grant of $9950 to Dr. Kurt J. Isselbacher of 20 Nobscot road, Newton Centre, for "Immunological Studies of Celiac Disease" has been announced by the Medical Foundation, a United Fund Agency.

Dr. Isselbacher is chief of the Gastrointestinal Unit at Massachusetts General Hospital and assistant professor of medicine at Harvard Medical School.

The award is for one year beginning Sept. 1.

This disease, which affects both children and adults, is one in which the patient gets intestinal symptoms because he cannot tolerate a protein called "gluten," found in foods made from wheat. Among the symptoms of this disease are weight loss, bloated stomach, anemia, diarrhea, and impaired growth (in children).

Investigations to date have failed to show a specific defect in digestive tract enzymes (body chemicals that digest our food) to account for the gluten intolerance in patients with celiac disease. On the other hand, Dr. Isselbacher believes that this disorder may be due to immunologic or allergic causes. If this can be shown, it will mean, according to Dr. Isselbacher, that for the first time, a specific test will be available to diagnose the disease and thus permit it to be treated before some of its more severe symptoms have taken their toll.

Safety Council Re-elects Two

Two Newton residents have been re-elected to serve a three-year term on the Board of Governors of the Massachusetts Safety Council.

They are Irving W. Rabb, 196 Morton street, Newton Centre, vice president and general manager of Stop & Shop, Inc., and Daniel Needham, 343 Highland street, West Newton, partner in the Boston law firm of Sherburne, Powers & Needham.

"Mind" Christian Science Topic On Next Sunday

"Mind" will be the subject Sunday, Aug. 23 in the last of a series of Bible lessons on names belonging to God, being presented at all Christian Science churches.

"He that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name" (Amos 4) will be included in the Bible readings.

To be heard also is this statement from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 256): "Infinite Mind is the creator, and creation is the infinite image or idea emanating from this Mind. If Mind is within and without all things, then all is Mind; and this definition is scientific."

Local Students Attend Council At University

Joe Keefe, Ricky Maley and Bill Finucane, students at Our Lady's High School in Newton, are attending the first annual Leadership Training Workshop sponsored by the Massachusetts Association of Student Councils.

The workshop is conducted for high school students and is held at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

The workshop opened on Sunday, August 16, with the registration of 125 students and faculty delegates. It will close tomorrow afternoon, Friday, August 21.

All student delegates and faculty, too, were organized into councils so that theory could be practiced; committees function, special interest groups set up, and resources exhibited.

Mayor Says Civil Service Would Block Home Rule

Control of the salaries of the city's welfare workers by the state is a prime example of interference with home rule, Mayor Donald L. Gibbs declared last week.

Saying that there should be higher salary ranges to keep step with rising living costs, W. Henry Finnegan, state director of civil service, had called a public hearing at the State House for Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 8, at 1:30 o'clock on a new wage schedule for welfare workers.

Proposed increases would give clerks $240 more, social workers $660 and the welfare director $960.

The mayor said he would present the city's position in the matter at the hearing.

Meantime, he has asked William K. Mackey, his administrative assistant, and Arthur A. Marr Jr., comptroller of accounts, to study the proposal.

Multiple sclerosis is a disabling, progressive disease of the human central nervous system. Prevention and cure remain unknown.

Newton Teen-Dems Plan Fall Membership Drive

The Newton Teen-Dems, young people who support the policies of the Democratic Party, is planning a city-wide membership campaign in the fall.

The organization's executive committee under the leadership of Richard Lasker will be in charge of the drive.

Newton Teen-Dems whose membership at this time is more than sixty young people, will wage a vigorous program to enlist all Democratic minded teen-agers in the city.

Members will have the opportunity of hearing and meeting top Democratic candidates and speakers, and will hear them discuss government policies and political ideas.

Teen-Dems also will provide members with a forum through which they can freely express their views on all political issues.

It will provide, and is providing, members with the opportunity to campaign for party-endorsed Democratic candidates.

Urban Renewal Meeting At N.H.S. Set For Sept. 22

A meeting co-sponsored by the Newton Chamber of Commerce, Newton Community Chest and Council, and the Newton League of Women Voters will be held in the auditorium of Newton High School on Tuesday evening, Sept. 22, at 8 o'clock, to explain what urban renewal will mean to residential and business property owners.

There will be a premiere showing of the Chamber's 18-minute colored slide and tape presentation. City officials, including Mayor Donald L. Gibbs and the city planner, will be on hand to answer questions.

The Urban Renewal Authority established by the Board of Aldermen is expected to get its program underway early this fall, and all interested persons are urged to attend the meeting to learn how it will affect their business district and property.

Auburndale 9 Champions Of Two Division

The Auburndale Jets became champions of the Newton Two National Division last Saturday afternoon by defeating the Boys Club 4 to 1 in a game played on Newton High School field.

The series went to Auburndale as the winner of three out of five games.

Doug Vernon was definitely the series hero, as Saturday's win was his third in three playoff starts. The previous night, with Bob Atwood on the mound for Auburndale and Mike Gradone serving them up for Boys Club, the result was a 1 to 1 tie. That game was halted by darkness.

Vernon, a fireball right hander, allowed six hits and struck out four in the deciding contest. Double plays in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings made his task easier.

All the Jets' runs were scored in the fourth. That important inning started off with a base on balls to Kim Britt, who reached home on Richie Ciccone's triple. Ciccone also crossed the plate when the throw-in from left went wild. The bases were loaded when Ken Bagley and Howie Hathaway singled and Jeff MacLaughlin worked the Boys Club pitcher for a walk. A sacrifice fly and a single brought in the other two runs.

Politicos At Dem. Conclave

Don't Under - Estimate Barry

ATLANTIC CITY—Battle-tested Democratic politicians, gathered here from all sections of the United States for their party's national convention, say privately that next November's Presidential election could be a lot closer than the polls presently indicate.

They express confidence that President Johnson will win the election, possibly even in a landslide, thereby justifying a nickname given him early in his political career.

It seems that LBJ once won an election by 87 votes in a real "squeaker" and was promptly dubbed "Landslide" Johnson by his fellow Texans. There is a

Green Light Ahead For Apartment Bid

Monday night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen opened with still another public hearing in the long list of those that have been held over a period of several months on petitions pertaining to the erection of a multi-million-dollar apartment complex at 250 Hammond Pond parkway, brought by Chestnut Hill Towers Inc.

No opposition was voiced, and the only appearance made in the petitions favor was that of Ernest G. Angvine of 95 Prince street, West Newton, attorney for the apartment corporation.

The former alderman merely made a brief bid for a change in the zoning ordinance that prohibits the parking of cars within a building's setback area. That ruling, he said, was due to an oversight by the Board, whose members he contended, never intended it to stand in the way of a project like that of Chestnut Hill Towers.

It is likely that the way will be cleared at long last for construction at the luxurious complex if and when the aldermen vote to amend the ordinance by adding a phrase that would allow setback space parking in Residence F. Districts.

A petition for acceptance of 400 feet of Briarfield road, Newton Highlands, brought in behalf of owners of the street's only two homes, met with objection from property owners on Dedham street whose land at the rear of their homes borders on Briarfield road. Those opposed contended the expense of improving the street, part of which they would have to pay, was unjustified.

Monday night's meeting was not by any means without accomplishment, but most of the time consumed was with matters on which action, after prolonged debate, was deferred.

One such matter was a recommendation of the mayor's advisory committee, whose members advocate a massive changeover of the city's accounting work by replacing bookkeeping machines, their operators and a considerable number of other clerical employees, with a data processing system involving installation of a combination of IBM and Univac computing equipment.

Specifically, the docket item, on which opinion was divided, and which led to debate occupying more than an hour, was a request by Arthur A. Marr Jr., comptroller of accounts, for an appropriation of $16,500 for services of Price Waterhouse and Company in setting up the data processing system and training the personnel to operate it.

Eventually the matter was referred back to committee for further study by a 19 to 0 vote.

The Finance committee had approved the request 5 to 1, the lone dissenter being its chairman, John P. Nixon. At Nixon's request, Alderman Auryansen acted as spokesman for the committee's majority, and declared that he and the other four members were convinced that data processing by computer was the coming thing and should be adopted by the city, with the advantages being speedier results, more efficiency and

Aldermen Adopt Group of Items As Recommend

Appropriations and other matters, recommended by various committees and approved by the Board of Aldermen with a 20 to 0 vote at the regular meeting in City Hall Monday night were as follows:

Denial of Abraham Ginsburg's offer of $6000 for land at Washington and Hamilton Sts., Newton Lower Falls. This is the site of the old Hamilton School, and the assessors were reported as feeling that the area, one of the oldest in Newton, is best fitted for consideration as a possible new school site.

Aldermen In 16-3 Balk On Pool Playing

The Board of Aldermen slammed the door Monday night on a proposal to provide facilities for pool playing on a grand scale in Newton Highlands.

Rejected by a vote of 16 to 3 was a petition by Port William, Inc., for a license to install 20 pool tables in a building at 26 Eliot street, adjacent to the Route 9, Newton Highlands, shopping center.

The petition for the establishment had a public hearing at the Board's previous meeting, Aug. 3, when property owners of the area came out in great numbers to oppose it. In a show of hands, 39 of them indicated opposition, and not a hand was raised in favor. Their spokesman left with the Board a petition signed by 170 objectors.

an eventual reduction in costs.

Chairman Nixon agreed that it was the coming thing, but contended that it should not be adopted at this particular time. "There is no need for it," he declared, and expressed solicitude for the present accounting employees whose jobs would be abolished with the installation of the new methods.

Alderman Warren A. Sutherland, a Finance committee member, explained that he was absent from the meeting at which the members voted 5 to 1 in favor of the proposal, and said that had he been present he would have voted against it. He said that he found it difficult to concur with the idea that the proposed system fitted in with the needs of a municipality.

The petition of John Dolan Oil Company Inc., for erection of a new building to house the company's motor vehicles at 153 Concord street, Newton Lower Falls, was again deferred by the charter objection maneuver. Alderman Auryansen had imposed a charter objection at the previous meeting. This time, in order to gain further delay, the consent of five members of the Board was necessary, and it was given.

Another time-consuming item was the request of the mayor and the commissioner of public buildings for an appropriation of $30,000 to complete demolition of the old Mason School in the square at Newton Centre. It was finally approved, but only after a great amount of debate on the question of whether the Free Library should be given first

State Police In West Newton

State Police assigned to duty on the Toll Road extension have been quartered temporarily at 70 Crescent St., West Newton, former office of Richard White & Sons. They will be there until a new barracks is built in Crescent Park, Brighton.

It was expected that the Newton Corner fire station would serve for a temporary barracks, but Mayor Gibbs insisted that the station be retained for fire equipment until the new one at Richardson and Church Sts. is completed around the first of the year.

A number of recommendations made by the Street Traffic Committee were approved and referred to the committee on Claims and Rules. Chief among them was a proposal that a rule similar to one in effect in Cambridge be adopted in the Boston College area. It calls for towing away of out-of-state cars that fail to respond to parking restrictions.

Contribution To Safety

Examination of tires as part of the Bay State's compulsory inspection routine, starting in September, definitely marks a long step forward in highway safety in the Commonwealth.

"Baldy" tires, defective ones and those suffering serious bruises and cuts have been contributing factors in countless traffic accidents, many bringing death or injury to their riders, or those in other cars.

Blow-outs have sent thousands of vehicles careening out of the line of traffic into bridges, trees, poles, or cars in adjoining motor lanes, and with fearsome results.

Starting with the September 1st inspection period, which extends to October 15, it will be the first time in Massachusetts that tires are included as part of the automobile equipment checked.

This is a move for which Registrar of Motor Vehicles James R. Lawton is to be highly commended.

Today's high-speed traffic and glutted vehicular highways does not allow for second or third rate equipment on automobiles. For that matter, neither does it allow for second or third rate drivers sitting behind the wheel. They are in sole control of all those horses straining at the bit under the hoods of modern automobile power plants.

Unfortunately a defective driver is often more difficult to discover. The ones who do most damage are the ones with certain necessary elements lacking between the ears.

We are aware of the dedication by state and local police and Registry personnel in the constant war on these gasoline goons.

But, the mere sight of any of these law enforcement gentlemen and their vehicles on the highways brings a momentary onrush of rare sanity to even the most reckless of wheel jockeys.

They are the epitome of caution and careful chauffeuring as long as the officer and his car are in sight. But, once beyond the range of vision and down goes the accelerator. Restraint is left far behind. Accident, here I come.

The average motorist who rides the traffic crest daily and week-ends could raise the hair on any state trooper's head with a simple recounting of what he sees through his windshield and rear-view mirror.

There is no mystery about the mounting traffic accident rate and death toll on the highways. The real miracle is that it isn't increased four-score. Any daily driver will attest to this. He rubs fenders with the gasoline goons constantly.

We encounter them in the parking lots where their stupidity is usually accompanied by minor dents and bruises to car exteriors, on the city streets where more serious involvement to machine and humans may result; and on the high-speed highways where the Grim Reaper often settles the score.

Certainly, there is no end in sight to the increasing stream of motor vehicles on streets and highways. Our far-flung expressways are not solving the problem nor thinning the flood. Mechanical check-ups are vital and must be thorough. Which leaves the human problem, and this is as individual and unique as each human behind the wheel, of which there are millions.

Granted it is a monumental task this business of trying to educate people to keep themselves alive while enjoying their automobiles. But the campaign must continue and a life saved here and there. Credit must go to Registrar Lawton for outstanding contributions in that direction.

feeling here that this time he may live up to the nickname bestowed sardonically upon him.

Yet, there is no disposition on the part of the seasoned Democratic politicians to under-estimate Senator Barry Goldwater, to dismiss the uncertainties involved in the coming Presidential battle or to take Johnson's election for granted.

Some Democratic chieftains, who have a finger close to the public pulse in their sections, report that a surprising number of Democrats intend to vote for Goldwater.

These are politicians from the North, not the South, and they are from areas where Johnson should be strongest and Goldwater weakest.

But the political analysts believe that the moderate and liberal Republicans, who will not vote for Goldwater, will outnumber the Democrats who will cross party lines to vote for Goldwater.

It is this last factor which might turn the Presidential race into a runaway for Johnson.

An element of uncertainty in this reckoning, however is whether those Republicans who are against Goldwater will vote for Johnson or not vote at all.

But the overriding factor entire conclave will come during the moving tribute to the martyred President. That's when emotions will be drained.

DAVID SHER

Waban Man In New Position At Star Market

David Sher, of Waban, has been appointed real estate manager for all divisions of Star Market Company, according to the announcement this week.

He formerly was a member of Star's properties division. His responsibility will lie in the area of acquisition of properties, leasing property for all subsidiary operating companies and rentals of stores within company owned shopping centers.

Mr. Sher received his bachelor of science from City College of New York in 1950 and his master of science degree from Columbia Graduate Business School in 1954. His career includes past affiliation with the National Bureau of Economics Research and the Miami Real Estate Division of Food Fair, Inc. Mr. Sher has also acted as Economic Consultant to various companies in the airlines and oil industries.

Prior to his present appointment, he served in the capacity of general manager for the Star Market Gold Stamp Corporation and director of Star's Property Division. His present position has resulted from the continued expansion of Star's Real Estate Program.

Mr. Sher lives on Oliver Road with his wife Lorraine and two children, Robin, 5, and Michael, 2. Robin will attend the Angier School in September.

In 1940, and in 1944 the Democratic bosses insisted on dumping Henry A. Wallace as the Vice Presidential nominee.

Harry S. Truman wielded no such control over the 1948 convention in Philadelphia as Lyndon Johnson does over this one.

As one Massachusetts delegate put it, it would seem strange to go home from a Democratic convention without getting into a fight about something.

Convention Mirrors Johnson's Politics

This convention in a honky tonk city, where heavy surf booms in all day and night on the white sand and excursion boats bob up and down in the rough seas off shore, mirrors in almost every way the political philosophy of President Lyndon Johnson, certainly the most accomplished politician in the nation today.

Understandably, every move that is made is designed to improve LBJ's chances of winning big next November.

Nowhere is it brought home more forcibly than here that Lyndon Johnson is the undisputed boss of the Democratic party, that he holds the party reins firmly in a strong, experienced hand.

Because this is so the orders passed down by Johnson's lieutenants and spokesmen are accepted and obeyed almost without question.

And there is little for the delegates to decide. They just follow the instructions given to them.

An occasional protest is made by an independent-minded delegate who expresses resentment at being cast in the role of puppet or rubber stamp.

But the complaints are infrequent. Even those who make them realize that Johnson has complete control of the conclave, that what he wants will be done and that any attempt to oppose his wishes would be both futile and foolish.

Don't get the wrong impression! This is no strong-arm operation. Everything is done smoothly, gently, persuasively, politely—but firmly.

Moderation is really the theme of the political side of the convention. The Johnson lieutenants apparently are under instructions to speak softly, tread lightly and use soothing plied. An obvious attempt is being made to avoid opening any new wounds in the South.

It is difficult to recall a Democratic national convention where so many things were settled in advance for the delegates. The last one probably was in 1936 when Franklin D. Roosevelt was renominated for a second term.

Even FDR encountered some opposition when he stood for renomination for a third term.

Memories of JFK Sadden Delegates

For the Massachusetts delegates and, indeed, for those from across the nation, there is a sadness to this 1964 Democratic national convention.

As they await the great memorial tribute to the late President, memories flow back of John F. Kennedy at past conventions which contrasted so sharply with this one.

There was John F. Kennedy's spectacular and successful fight at the bustling, lively, exciting conclave in Los Angeles four years ago when JFK wrested the nomination away from the man who now sits in the White House and is running this rather cut-and-dried conclave from behind the scenes.

There was the 1956 convention at Chicago where John F. Kennedy battled the late Senator Estes Kefauver for the Vice Presidential nomination and was nosed out after a thrilling struggle.

There was the 1952 convention at Chicago when young John F. Kennedy, then a Congressman seeking promotion to the U. S. Senate, went up and down the aisles of the convention hall seeking support for a reluctant Adlai Stevenson.

For the delegates from John F. Kennedy's home State the climax and high point of the Postdoctoral Fellowships To Four At M.I.T.

Four Newton residents were among 46 young engineering teachers appointed Postdoctoral Engineering Fellows at Massachusetts Institute of Technology for the year 1964-65.

They were: Michael L. Derouzos, 90 Montvale road, Newton Centre, electrical engineering; James D. Bruce, 25 Glenland road, Chestnut Hill, metallurgy; Hal L. Moses, 6 Broadway terrace, Newtonville, mechanical engineering; and Franklyn M. Clikeman, 5 Bemis road, Newtonville, nuclear engineering.

Named for the first time to fellowships and assistant professorships, they receive support under a Ford Foundation program, which provides an opportunity for able young men to gain experience in both teaching and research.

If you must have "one for the road," says the Automobile Legal Association, make it a safe and sound car.

Weeks Jr. High School To Open September 14

Newcomers to the Weeks Junior High School district, Newton Centre, are requested to telephone the Weeks guidance office, 244-4742, during the weeks of August 31 or September 7, for an appointment in order to register.

The school opens for seventh graders on Monday, September 14 and for eighth and ninth graders on Tuesday, September 15. The first day of school will be a full day, 8:50 a. m. to 3:00 p. m., and the cafeteria will be open from the first day on.

Due to the complexity of the school program, no subject changes may be made after the opening of school on September 14th.

Those pupils scheduled for make-up exams should report to the main office before 9 a. m. on Thursday, September 10th.

To pass on the left may be okay, says the A.L.A. But if you pass on the right you may just pass away.

Pearl Harbor Vets Wanted

Plans of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association for revisiting Pearl Harbor for a memorial service and convention on the sneak attack's 25th anniversary, Dec. 7, 1966, can be better shaped if it is found that the Newton area has any former members of the armed services who were there on the fateful day.

PHSA, a non-profit, fraternal veterans group, has asked The Graphic to help in the search for members of the U. S. Army, Navy, Marines and Coast Guard who were serving on the island of Oahu, then the territory of Hawaii, or who were on duty or on station within three miles offshore of Oahu on Dec. 7, 1941.

Anyone in this area who is a survivor, or who knows of one, is asked to write for full information on PHSA to the headquarters office. The address: Pearl Harbor Survivors Association, Room 5, Jefferson Bldg., 101 East High Street, Jefferson City, Mo.

Hancock Hall Site Of High Holy Day Rites

Temple Sinai, Brookline, will hold its High Holy Day services in Hancock Hall, Boston where the congregation has enjoyed ample facilities for the past several years. The Temple continues its policy of encouraging parents and children to worship together as family units during the Holy Days because of the facilities thus afforded.

Both Rabbi Benjamin Z. Rudavsky, newly designated Rabbi of Temple Sinai, and Dr. Beryl D. Cohen, Rabbi Emeritus, will deliver sermons during the Holy Days.

A special Sabbath eve service will be held tomorrow (Friday evening, August 28, at 8:15 p.m.). Following a brief service, a reception will be tendered Rabbi and Mrs. Rudavsky in the Ehrenfried Hall of Temple Sinai.

Sessions of the Temple Sinai Religious School will begin Saturday and Sunday, September 12 and 13 at 9:30 p.m. with all grades, kindergarten through the Youth (Confirmation) meeting in refurbished classrooms. Enrollment of new students is being conducted by Mrs. Joseph B. Grossman, principal.

The congregation recently concluded its observances of its twenty-fifth anniversary. An attractive brochure entitled: "At Sinai-1939-64" published during the observances is now available and may be obtained by calling the Temple office—AS 7-5888.

Week Sees 3 Instances Of Run, Thief, Run

Two men escaped arrest this week by being fleet of foot.

They were seen early Tuesday morning ransacking cars in Woodchester Dr., Chestnut Hill, but they accomplished a getaway before police arrived. It developed that a car owned by Sidney Hart of 60 Woodchester Dr., yielded a set of golf clubs, and one owned by Mrs. Gertrude Hallow of No. 100, was stripped of an electric eye assembly.

Less speedy was a Watertown youth who was stopped for questioning by police when he was seen running in the vicinity of a West Newton store early Sunday morning. The officers discovered that a front door window of the Garden City Farms had been smashed with a rock, and the youth was then taken on a charge of attempting to break and enter with intent to steal.

There was a third instance of taking to heels from the scene of a crime. According to a report to the police, the Church of the Redeemer at 365 Hammond St., Chestnut Hill, was broken into Monday night, but apparently the thieves were frightened away before they could get the church safe open.

Life Of Christ Science Topic

The life of Christ Jesus—from his birth through his ascension—will be taken up at all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 9: "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder."

Readings will include these lines from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus established what he said by demonstration, thus making his acts of higher importance than his words. He proved what he taught. This is the Science of Christianity" (p. 473).

BETTY TAYMOR

TV Feature To Center Around Local Delegate

WHDH-TV cameras will follow Betty Taymor of Newton as she participates in the Democratic National Convention. Mrs. Taymor, 44, a delegate to the convention, is also a candidate for state representative from the Fourth Middlesex District.

The cameras will attempt to record the processes involved in nomination of candidates and the shaping up of the party platform. By selecting one delegate and following her at the convention, the program hopes to personalize the convention processes.

The program will be viewed in October in an hour-long show, and will be loaned to schools and civic groups after it has been aired.

Mrs. Taymor is the wife of gynecologist Dr. Melvin Taymor, assistant professor of gynecology at Harvard Medical School and staff physician at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital. Her children are Michael, 18; Laurie, 17, and Julie, 11.

Mrs. Taymor was campaign co-ordinator for the late John F. Kennedy in both his senatorial and presidential campaigns. Now she is serving her second term on the U. S. National Commission of UNESCO. Originally appointed by President Kennedy, she was re-appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

She studied with Prof. Robert Wood of M.I.T., on an Ellicott Fellowship from Goucher College, of which she is an alumnae. Her research was on the development of political education for women in the United States.

Mrs. Taymor is vice-chairman of the Democratic State Committee.

Candidates Night By Democratic Committee Has Record Turnout

One of the largest audiences in the history of the Newton Democratic City Committee attended last week's "Candidates Night" in the Claffin School.

Because of its unusual size, Chairman Herbert F. Regal had to limit the questioning of candidates from the floor.

There were 21 aspirants for state and local office present, with the list headed by Lt. Gov. Francis X. Bellotti.

In a business meeting prior to the open program, the committee adopted a new set of by-laws. Under the terms of one of them the committee may by a two-thirds vote, endorse in a primary any candidate duly endorsed by the Democratic State Convention. This provision is to take effect in January 1965.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy was represented by his cousin, Robert Fitzgerald of Milton, who explained a signature drive which would be a key part of the Senator's fall campaign.

Rep. Albert Kramer of Chelsea represented Gov. Endicott Peabody, and cited the Governor's remarkable record of legislative accomplishments of the past two years.

Among those who addressed the meeting were the present State Treasurer Robert Crane of Brighton and Governor's Councillor John J. Buckley, Mayor of Lawrence, both candidates for the office of state treasurer. Sen. James Henigan, candidate for attorney general, spoke briefly as did John Toska, city councillor from Brockton and candidate for Governor's Council.

On the local level, the committee heard all three Democratic candidates for state representative from the 4th

Middlesex District where two are to be nominated. They were Rep. Joseph G. Bradley, a member of the Newton Democratic City Committee and a candidate for re-election; State Committeewoman Betty Taymor, vice chairman of the Democratic State Committee and a member of the Newton Democratic City Committee and, Attorney Paul F. Malloy.

Unopposed in the primary are State Senator Beryl W. Cohen, candidate for re-election in the Norfolk-Suffolk State Senatorial District, and Morris Kritzman, chairman of the Newton Ward 8 Democratic Committee and candidate in the Norfolk-Middlesex State Senatorial District.

The audience also heard Mrs. Patricia Cole of Weston, secretary of the Weston Democratic Town Committee, candidate for representative in the new 17th Middlesex District which includes Auburndale.

Rep. Irving Fishman, a member of the Boston City Democratic City Committee and a candidate for re-election and Henry G. Barry, member of the committee and first time candidate for public office, addressed the meeting. Both are unopposed.

Other speakers were Clerk of Court Edward J. Sullivan, running for re-election; candidates for Register of Deeds, present Register Edward Buckley and former Register James F. Fitzgerald; candidates for County Commissioner, John J. Dever, Jr., up for re-election, Rocco Antonelli and Joseph La Presti.

The Newton Summer Theatre Company will repeat its hit production of "Charley's Aunt" for two performances next month.

Arrangements have been completed to perform this "wildly funny farce" for freshmen orientation week at Framingham State Teachers College on Sept. 10 and at Newton College of the Sacred Heart on Sept. 12. Both bookings are closed performances; the public will not be admitted.

Schools, charitable organizations, or other parties interested in further information with regard to booking this complete show, either in their auditorium or at Newton, should contact Frank Dolan at Newton College of the Sacred Heart.

the other into an area which will include a vestibule, a cloak room, a kitchen, and an office for the student social committee.

In addition, this lounge and a smaller lounge in the basement will serve as study and relaxation centers for Newton college's 92 day students. The basement will also contain book lockers, storage rooms, and machinery space.

The new wing, which will be air-conditioned throughout, will be of contemporary design and decor. Clear and black glass panels will form the two exterior walls, which will be framed by brick and limestone. Much of the roof will be skylighted.

The main entrance to the building will face Mill Street. Directly to the south and west of this entrance there are landscaped parking areas with a capacity of 105 cars.

The cost of the building will be met with private funds — from alumnae, parents, and other friends of Newton College. Completion of the new wing will mark a major step in the college's long-range development program.

MORRIS KRITZMAN

Kritzman Sees Time For Change In Senate Seat

Former State Representative Morris Kritzman with no opposition in the Primary, is assured of the Democratic nomination for State Senator from the Norfolk-Middlesex District of Dedham, Needham, Wellesley, Weston, and Newton Wards 2, 3, 4, 5, 8.

He will oppose 74 year old Mrs. Leslie Cutler, of Needham, who is a veteran of 25 years in the Legislature. Says Kritzman: "It's time for a change. This district is no longer what it was 25 years ago. This year the voters have a real opportunity to make a choice between two candidates representing two opposing political philosophies."

With the solid support of local and State Democratic leaders Kritzman's backers are convinced that he will have strong appeal to Independents and liberal Republicans whose desire for "government with a heart" transcends policy.

Mrs. Charlotte W. Troutwine, executive director, states: "Many a home has been held together at a time of medical crisis because of these mature women who are primarily motivated by the unselfish desire to help their fellow man."

Those who have used the service say, "It is a great relief to know someone will be there to care for the children while mother is ill, or that my elderly relative will not need to go to a nursing home."

All families are served regardless of race, color, religion or economic status.

Mrs. Irene K. Thresher, president, Mrs. Hilda LaRocca of the Mass. Dept. of Public Health, and members of the staff of Intercommunity Home-maker Service, were hostesses for the party.

Mrs. Troutwine further states: "Families needing service and women interested in becoming homemakers, should telephone the Intercommunity Home-maker Service for information. Short training courses are frequently given in each community."

JOHN H. FLYNN

Plans Set For Maine All-Year Recreation Spot

John H. Flynn, of Newton, dean of students at Newton Junior College, whose retirement was announced in June, has been elected a member of the board of directors of Evergreen Valley, Inc., of North Lovell, Maine.

He also has been appointed director of sales and promotion for the corporation.

Evergreen Valley is in process of development and when completed will be one of the finest and most complete all year 'round vacation recreation areas in the eastern part of the country.

Plans for the development, located in the West Stoneham area near North Lovell in Maine, includes Adams Mountain and adjacent territory. It will be open during the entire year and will offer ski trails and chair lift on Adams Mountain and an 18 hole golf course in the beautiful valley at the mountain's base. Also included will be facilities for boating, swimming, fishing, skating, hunting and other sports of the four seasons.

Mr. Flynn has been a resident of Newton for many years. His summer residence is in East Stoneham adjacent to the Evergreen Valley location. He will spend much of his time in Newton on the promotional aspect of the project.

He is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts and holds a degree in recreation from the university.

Soap and education are not as sudden as a massacre, but they are more deadly in the long run.

Rev. Harding Is Summer Services Preacher Sunday

The Rev. Robert J. Harding of the Central Congregational Church will preach next Sunday, August 30th, at the Newton Union Summer Service, which will be held at 10 o'clock in the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville. Music will be by Marshall S. Wilkins, organist and Miss Anne Sousa, mezzo-soprano. During the service care will be provided for children.

Rev. Harding has served pastorates in New Hampshire and Vermont since 1944, and was pastor of the Brattleboro Church before coming to Newtonville. In addition to his pastoral duties, Rev. Harding has been active in a variety of Congregational Conferences, also interdenominational and community responsibilities.

In Vermont he served at the conference as director, conference president, preacher, chaplain and director of youth camps. In work with other denominations, he has been president and vice-president of the County Council of Churches and participated in church radio programs and worship services at a local mental institution and a Home for the Aged.

Mr. Harding was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and received his A.B. from the University of New Hampshire and his B.D. from Andover-Newton Theological School. He was ordained in West Lebanon, N.H. in 1946.

During the week of Aug. 28th-Sept. 3rd, Rev. Harding will be on call for pastoral service for the churches co-operating in the Union Summer Services and he may be reached at 527-5019 or 244-5395.

Education means developing the mind, not stuffing the memory.

Good Golf By Lad

John McIntyre, 13, of West Newton, with a low score of 74 in last week's Junior Community Golf Tournament at Albemarle, was the medalist for the second straight week. The previous week, playing against 19 others, he carded a 68.

One reason the courts don't handle more drunken driving cases — the undertaker get them first.
